

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

THE preparation of the statistical portion of this volume was commenced with the purpose of gathering up for future reference some details concerning the present financial and social condition of the several communities comprised within the limits of Norfolk County, to be deposited in the archives of the Dedham Historical Society. The historical portion — suggested by the resolution passed by Congress, recommending the preparation of county histories — was not commenced until late in the year, and was prosecuted under many disadvantages. Still later it occurred to the compiler that much of the matter he had accumulated in the progress of his work would be of value for present use as well as for future reference, and he finally decided to prepare it for publication. He has endeavored to make it a reliable compendium of facts and figures, obtaining his information from the best available sources, and spending much time and labor in the work of verification. The volume is offered to the citizens of Norfolk County not only as a convenient manual for use in the practical matters of everyday life, but as a contribution to the historical data of the county, most of which has never before been brought together. In the progress of the work much valuable material has been accumulated, which it was impossible to use in the present book, but which may appear in a subsequent volume.

The compiler desires to express his obligations to the many friends who have rendered assistance in furnishing statistical and historical information. The valuable papers to be found in successive volumes of the "New England Genealogical Register" have been of essential service in the preparation of the biographical portion of the work.

MUSICAL SOCIETIES.

STOUGHTON MUSICAL SOCIETY. — President, Winslow Battles, Randolph. Vice-Presidents, Isaac Swan, Stoughton; Marcus A. Perkins, Braintree; George N. Spear, Holbrook; William R. Bowen, Brookton; J. Murray Whitcomb, Weymouth; J. Horace Willis, North Easton; Webster S. Wales, North Abington. Chorister, Hiram Wilde, Randolph. Vice-Chorister, John Berry Thayer, Randolph. Treasurer, A. W. Whitcomb, Randolph. Secretary, D. H. Huxford, Randolph.

The "Stoughton Musical Society," organized in 1786, by singers and players resident in Stoughton, Canton and Sharon, now having a membership of about 500, resident for the most part in Randolph, Holbrook, Braintree, Brockton, Weymouth, Abington, Easton, and the above-named original towns, has maintained this long existence without a break in its annual meetings, which have generally fallen on Christmas afternoon and evening, with a hot turkey supper. Of late years this annual meeting, or festival, has been held at Randolph, when not only classical choruses, songs and concerted pieces are sung, but those stirring old tunes of American composition, which our sires sang with such spirit and vigor, are given with a delight and accuracy second only to the rendering of the fathers.

A cherished object of this society is to keep alive and in esteem the music of the early American composers, unique and weird in its melody, irregular in its harmony, yet having a ring and gush that savor of the eternal songs.

HISTORICAL.

NORFOLK COUNTY, as first incorporated, included all the original territory of Suffolk, except the towns of Boston and Chelsea. May 10, 1643, the Colony of Massachusetts Bay was divided into four counties, viz. : Essex, Middlesex, Suffolk and Norfolk, the latter comprising the towns of Haverhill, Salisbury, Hampton, Exeter, Dover and Portsmouth. The four last-named towns having been set off to New Hampshire on its separation from Massachusetts in 1680, the others were set back to Essex, Feb. 4, 1680, and the original County of Norfolk ceased to exist.

For many years previous to the organization of the present County of Norfolk, great dissatisfaction had existed among the more remote towns, and several attempts were made for a division of the County of Suffolk, but it was not until the first session of the Legislature of 1793 that the long-continued movement for a new county prevailed. No copy of the original petitions upon which the act was passed have been preserved.

The following is the Act of Incorporation : —

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three.

AN ACT

FOR DIVIDING THE COUNTY OF SUFFOLK, AND ESTABLISHING A NEW COUNTY BY THE NAME OF NORFOLK.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That all the territory of the county of Suffolk, not comprehended within the towns of Boston and Chelsea, from and after the twentieth day of June next, be, and hereby is formed and erected into an entire and distinct county, by the name of Norfolk; and Dedham shall be the shire town, till otherwise ordered by the General Court; and the inhabitants of said county of Norfolk shall have and possess, use, exercise and enjoy all the powers, rights and immunities, which, by the Constitution and Laws of this Commonwealth, the inhabitants of any county within the same, have, possess, exercise and enjoy, or are entitled to.

And be it further enacted, That there shall be held and kept within the said county of Norfolk, at the shire town thereof, a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, and a Court of Common Pleas, on the last Tuesdays of April and September, yearly; and a Supreme Judicial Court, on the Tuesday next preceding the last Tuesday in August, annually, to commence in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four. And the Justices of said Courts of subordinate jurisdiction, when lawfully appointed and commissioned, shall have, hold, exercise and enjoy all the powers and authority which are given and granted to Justices of like Courts in any other county within this Commonwealth; and all the aforesaid Courts shall bear the same legal relation to each other, by process of every kind, as the like Courts do in the other counties of this Commonwealth.

And be it further enacted, That the methods and proceedings directed by law for choosing a County Treasurer and Register of Deeds, and the modes, forms and proceedings, known and practiced, in bringing forward and trying actions, causes, pleas or suits, and of originating and conducting legal process of every kind, whether civil or criminal, in the Judicial Courts established in the several counties in this Commonwealth, and for choosing Jurors to serve at said Courts, shall be observed, and put in practice within the said county of Norfolk: Provided that the choice of County Treasurer and Register of Deeds for said county of Norfolk, shall for the first time originate in the same manner as prescribed by law, where vacancies happen in said offices by death or resignation.

And be it further enacted, That all writs, suits, and process, of every kind, which may, before the said twentieth day of June, be depending in any Court, including Probate Courts, within the county of Suffolk, shall be heard and tried, proceeded and determined upon in the county of Suffolk, in the same manner as they would have been if this Act had not been made.

And be it further enacted, That all deeds for the conveyance of real estates within the said county of Norfolk, which shall be executed prior to the establishment of a Registry of Deeds, and qualification of a Register within said county of Norfolk, may be recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds for the county of Suffolk, and shall have the same legal effect and operation as though they were recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the said county of Norfolk.

And be it further enacted, That the several towns and districts within the said county of Norfolk, shall pay their proportion of all county taxes already granted and assessed, in the same manner as they would have done if this Act had not been made; and shall be holden to pay their proportion of all debts that shall be owing by the county of Suffolk, on the said twentieth of June next, after the appropriation of the present outstanding taxes, and be entitled also to their proportion of all property belonging to said county of Suffolk, except in the county Court-House, Goal and Goal-House, and the land belonging thereto: And said county of Norfolk shall be obliged to build and keep in repair all bridges within the said county of Norfolk, which at this time are chargeable upon the county of Suffolk, and perform all other duties and obligations within their limits which the county of Suffolk are now obliged to perform.

And be it further enacted, That if it shall so happen that any person or persons shall be liable to be committed to prison within the said county of Norfolk, within two years from the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful to commit such person or persons by due process, to the common goal within the county of Suffolk; and all processes of law, and the powers of all Officers within said county of Norfolk, shall be as legal and binding for that purpose, as though the same goal was within the said county of Norfolk; and the keeper for said goal shall be liable for the safe keeping of all prisoners, so committed, in the same manner as though committed by due course of legal proceedings within the county of Suffolk; and all prisoners, so committed, shall be entitled to the same benefits and indulgencies as though committed within the said county of Norfolk; and all necessary expenses which shall arise in consequence of the commitment of any prisoners from the county of Norfolk, shall be defrayed by the same County.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, March 22d, 1793.

This bill having had three several readings, passed to be enacted.

DAVID COBB, Speaker.

IN SENATE, March 22d, 1793.

This bill having had two several readings, passed to be enacted.

SAMUEL PHILLIPS, President.

By the Governor,

Approved March 26, 1793.

JOHN HANCOCK.

The towns thus set off from Suffolk were Bellingham, Braintree, Brookline, Cohasset, Dedham, Dorchester, Dover (district), Foxborough, Franklin, Hingham, Hull, Medfield, Medway, Milton, Needham, Quincy, Randolph, Roxbury, Sharon, Stoughton, Walpole, Weymouth, Wrentham.

At the June session of the same year (1793, Chapter 9 of the Act passed June 20th), so much of the above Act of Incorporation "as it respects the towns of Hingham and Hull, is hereby repealed and made null and void."

At the same session, Chapter 12 of the Acts provides that, whereas, in the Act dividing the County of Suffolk and establishing the County of Norfolk, "no provision is made for the choice of Grand Jurors to serve at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace in the several Counties of Suffolk and Norfolk, the present year," "the Clerk of the Court of the General Sessions of the Peace, in the said counties, be, and hereby are authorized respectively to make out their warrants to the Constables of the several towns in their respective counties, or, to so many of them as the Court shall order, requiring them, severally, to assemble the freeholders and inhabitants of their respective towns, qualified to vote for Representatives, to choose, by ballot, one or more good and lawful man, or men, in each town, as the Court shall direct, of like qualifications and of good moral character, as is already required by 'An Act regulating the appointment and services of Grand Jurors,' to appear at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, next to be holden within the said counties respectively, and there to serve on the Grand Jury at every Court of General Sessions of the Peace, throughout the remainder of the present year, and until another Grand Jury shall be chosen, impanelled and sworn in their room, and the Constables shall notify the persons so chosen four days before the sitting of the Court, and their duty shall be the same as is already declared and designated in the before-mentioned 'Act regulating the appointment and services of Grand Jurors.'"

June 29, 1798, an act was passed by the Legislature establishing an additional term of the Supreme Judicial Court for the County of Norfolk, on the 1st Tuesday of February, annually.

March 3, 1802, an act was passed by the Legislature establishing an additional term of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Norfolk, on the 1st Tuesday of January, annually, in addition to the terms already established.

COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS AND OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE.

July 3, 1782 (Chap. 12), an act was passed by the Legislature establishing a Court of Common Pleas in each county of the State, to be held by four substantial, discreet and learned persons, each of whom should be an inhabitant of the county wherein he should be appointed, to be commissioned by the Governor, and to have cognizance of all civil actions of the value of more than forty shillings.

July 3, 1782 (Chap. 15), an act was also passed establishing a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, to be held by the Justices of each county, "who are hereby empowered to hear and determine all matters relative to the Conservation of the Peace and the punishment of such offences as are cognizable by them at Common Law."

Feb. 27, 1787 (Chap. 15), an act was passed, the provisions of which gave to the Court of General Sessions of the Peace similar powers with those now held and exercised by County Commissioners.

The first session of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace was held at Dedham, on the last Tuesday of September, 1793, at which Nathaniel Ames, of Dedham, was appointed Clerk. Deacon Isaac Bullard, of Dedham, was chosen Treasurer of the county for the remainder of the year, and, upon examining the votes returned to said court, it appeared that Capt. Eliphalet Pond, of Dedham, was elected Register of Deeds by a large majority. Hon. Ebenezer Thayer, Esq., of Braintree, who had been appointed Sheriff by the Governor, nominated his bondsmen, who were approved. At the end of the record of this meeting occurs this statement: "John Jones, Esq., of Dover, President of this session."

The next record is as follows:—

"Norfolk, ss. January 7, 1794. Court of General Sessions of the Peace for said County, held at Dedham by adjournment from the first Tuesday in November last. Opened first in the old meeting-house, but, by reason of coldness, immediately adjourned to the sign of the Law Book, and there opened again."

The business of this session seems to have been the apportionment of the county tax, decision upon road matters, the issuing of licenses to victuallers, and the trial of offenders charged with gaming, slander and larceny. Deacon Isaac Bullard was also in open court sworn into office as the Treasurer of the county.

By the records of the Executive Council it appears, that on July 2, 1793, Samuel Niles, Esq., of Braintree, Richard Cranch, Esq., of Quincy, William Heath, Esq., of Roxbury, and Stephen Metcalf, Esq., of Bellingham, were appointed Justices of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Norfolk. No notice of the declination of either of these gentlemen appears on the records of either the Court or the Council, but on the 3d of September of the same year, Nathaniel Ames, Esq., of Dedham, John Read, Esq., of Roxbury, and Ebenezer Warren, Esq., of Foxborough, were appointed Justices, and Edward H. Robbins, Esq., of Milton, and Solomon Lovell, Esq., of Weymouth, Special Justices of the Court of Common Pleas. September 24th following, James Endicott, Esq., of Stoughton, was appointed Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.

The first session of this Court was held at Dedham, September 24th, 1793, at which were present Hon. Stephen Metcalf and Ebenezer Warren and James Endicott, Esquires, Nathaniel Ames being Clerk of the Court. Daniel Perry, of Medfield, was appointed Special Justice of the Court February 25, 1794.

May 27, 1799, Edward H. Robbins, of Milton, was appointed Chief Justice, and Oliver Everett, of Dorchester, and Horatio Townsend, of Medfield, Special Justices of the Court of Common Pleas; and September 26, 1800, Oliver Everett was recommissioned a Justice. July 5, 1802, Daniel Perry was reappointed as a Justice, and Samuel Haven, of Dedham, a Special Justice; and May 24, 1803, Moses Everett, of Dorchester, and Samuel Bass, of Randolph, were appointed Special Justices.

June 15, 1804, Samuel Haven, of Dedham, was appointed Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas. January 29, 1805, Moses Everett, of Dorchester, was reappointed Justice, and David S. Greenough, of Roxbury, was appointed Special Justice. February 6, 1806, Thomas Williams, of Roxbury, was appointed Special Justice, and May 10th, of the same year, Thomas Greenleaf, of Quincy, was also appointed Special Justice.

June 19, 1807 (Chap. 11), the Legislature passed an act in addition to an act entitled "An Act establishing Courts of General Sessions of the Peace," passed the 3d day of July, 1782, the first section of which provided that from and after the first of September following, "the Courts of General Sessions of the Peace, in the several counties, shall be holden by one Chief or First Justice, and by so many associate justices as shall be hereafter mentioned, and no more, to be designated and appointed by the Governor, with the advice of the Council, who shall issue commissions to them for that purpose, accordingly, instead of the same being holden by the Justices of the Peace of each county; the justices so appointed to meet in their several counties at the several times and places that now are, or hereafter may be, established by law for the holding of the several Courts of the General Sessions of the Peace."

Section two provided for the number of Associate Justices — "for the County of Norfolk, four." Section three provided that Justices should "have all the powers and perform all the duties that the Courts of General Sessions of the Peace now have, or perform in and by the act to which this is an addition, provided, always, that the justices shall not be appointed, or serve on any committee for the laying out, altering or discontinuing any road or highway." Section four provided that Justices should receive $3 per day, each, for actual attendance, and $2 for every ten miles' travel, or in that proportion for longer or shorter travel, to be paid out of the county treasury.

In accordance with the provisions of this law, the Governor, on the 3d of July, 1807, appointed Ebenezer Seaver, of Roxbury, Chief Justice, and William Aspinwall, of Brookline, John Ellis, of Medway. Joseph Bemis, of Canton, and Samuel Day, of Wrentham, Justices of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the County of Norfolk. August 22, of the same year, William Aspinwall resigned and Nathaniel Ruggles, of Roxbury, was appointed in his place.

June 19, 1809 (Chap. 17), the Legislature passed an act transferring the powers and duties of the Court of Sessions of the Peace to the Court of Common Pleas.

June 21, 1811 (Chap. 33), an act was passed establishing Circuit Courts of Common Pleas within this Commonwealth, the first section of which divided the State (except Dukes and Nantucket) into six circuits — the counties of Norfolk, Plymouth, Bristol and Barnstable to be one circuit, and to be called the southern Circuit. Section two provided that courts should be held in the several circuits, at such times and places as "are now by law appointed for holding the Courts of Common Pleas; to consist of one Chief Justice and two Associate Justices, who shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all civil actions arising within their respective circuits (excepting only such actions wherein the Supreme Judicial Court, or where Justices of the Peace now have original jurisdiction), and shall also have jurisdiction of all such offences, crimes and misdemeanors, as before the passing of this act were cognizable by the respective Courts of Common Pleas, and also appellate jurisdiction of all civil actions and all crimes, etc., where an appeal may now, by law, be made from the decisions of Justices of the Peace." Of this new Court, Thomas Boylston Adams, of Quincy, was appointed Chief Justice, and Jairus Ware, of Wrentham, and Nahum Mitchell, of Bridgewater, Associate Justices.

June 25, 1811 (Chap. 81), an act was passed re-establishing the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, section first of which provided that "from and after the first of September next an act passed June 19, 1809, is repealed, and all acts before in force relative to the Court of Sessions revived." Section 3 of the act provided for the appointment of one Chief Justice, and not exceeding four and not less than two other persons as Justices. September 3, 1811, the judges of the former Court, viz., Ebenezer Seaver, of Roxbury, Chief Justice, and John Ellis, of Medway, Joseph Bemis, of Canton, Samuel Day, of Wrentham, and Nathaniel Ruggles, of Roxbury, were reappointed.

Feb. 28, 1814 (Chap. 197), the Legislature passed an act transferring the powers and duties of the Court of Sessions to the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, section first of which provided "that from and after the first day of June next the act entitled 'An Act to establish the Court of Sessions,' passed June 25, 1811, be, and the same is hereby, repealed, except so far as it relates to the Counties of Suffolk, Nantucket and Dukes." Section 4 of the act provided that the Governor appoint "two discreet persons, being freeholders within each county, who shall be Session Justices of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas in their respective counties."

June 11, 1814, Ebenezer Warren, of Foxborough, and Samuel Bass, of Randolph, were appointed Session Justices. August 21, 1816, Joseph Heath, of Roxbury, and November 21 of the same year, Samuel Swett, of Dedham, were appointed Session Justices.

Feb. 20, 1819 (Chap. 120), an act was passed establishing Courts of Sessions, and repealing the act of Feb. 28, 1814. The act provided for one Justice and two Associate Justices. June 16, 1819, Jairus Ware, of Wrentham, was appointed Justice, and Ebenezer Warren, of Foxborough, and Samuel Swett, of Dedham, Associate Justices.

The act (Chap. 79) passed Feb. 15, 1821, establishing a Court of Common Pleas for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, superseded and abolished the Circuit Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County.

Feb. 26, 1822 (Chap. 51), an act was passed increasing the number and extending the powers of Justices of the Courts of Sessions, and providing for the appointment of two Special Justices for every Court of Sessions. April 16, 1822, Jairus Ware, of Wrentham, was appointed Chief Justice, and Daniel Adams, of Medfield, and Samuel P. Loud, of Dorchester, were appointed Associate Justices.

March 4, 1826 (Chap. 171), an act was passed in addition to "An act directing the method of laying out highways;" the Governor to appoint five Commissioners of Highways. July 12, 1826, Ebenezer Seaver, of Roxbury (Chairman), Christopher Webb, of Weymouth, John Endicott, of Dedham, Lewis Fisher, of Franklin, and Nathaniel Tucker, of Milton, were appointed Commissioners of Highways for Norfolk County.

Sept. 1, 1826, Jairus Ware, of Wrentham, having been elected Clerk of the Courts of Norfolk County, resigned his position as Chief Justice of the Court of Sessions for Norfolk County, and Daniel Adams, of Medfield, was promoted to that office; and William Ellis, of Dedham, was made Associate Justice, the other being Samuel P. Loud, of Dorchester.

Feb. 26, 1828 (Chap. 77), an act was passed establishing County Commissioners in the several counties, which repealed the following: Act to establish Courts of Sessions, passed February 20, 1819; Act in addition, passed February 21, 1820; Act increasing numbers and powers of Judges of Courts of Sessions, passed February 6, 1822; Act of March 4, 1826, relating to highways.

The following are the material sections of the Act of 1828:—

“Section 4 enacts that from and after its passage the County Commissioners in their respective counties shall have, exercise and perform, except so far as modified by the provisions of this act, all the powers, authorities and duties which, before and until the passing of the act, the Courts of Sessions or Commissioners of Highways have by law exercised and performed.

“Sect. 5. All petitions, recognizances, warrants, certificates, orders, reports and processes made to, pending in, taken for, or continued or returnable to the Courts of Sessions, shall be returnable to and proceeded in by the County Commissioners.”

The act further provided that the Governor should appoint four Commissioners in Norfolk County.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

April 14, 1828, Samuel P. Loud, of Dorchester (Chairman), William Ellis, of Dedham, Lewis Fisher, of Franklin, and Nathaniel Tucker, of Milton, were appointed County Commissioners. The first meeting of the Board was held on the following day, as appears by the record: “April 15, 1828. This day being the time on which the County Commissioners for this county are to hold their meeting, by law, in Dedham, in said county, the meeting was opened by Hon. William Ellis, one of said commissioners, and a majority thereof not appearing to make a quorum, the said meeting was by him adjourned, pursuant to law, to Tuesday, the 22d day of April instant, at ten o'clock, A.M., and the clerk directed to give notice thereof in the ‘Village Register,’ printed in Dedham.”

Of the next meeting, the following is the record: “The County Commissioners met, according to adjournment, the 22d of April, A.D. 1828. Present: Samuel P. Loud, Esq., Chairman; William Ellis, Lewis Fisher, Nathaniel Tucker, Esqs.”

April 8, 1835 (Chap. 152), an act was passed providing for the choice in each county of the Commonwealth of three County Commissioners and two Special Commissioners at an election, to be held on the first Monday of May, 1835, and on the same day in every third year thereafter; in case of non-election or vacancy, a new election to be held until the Board was filled; County and Special Commissioners then in office by appointment to remain in office until their successors were chosen and qualified.

May 22, 1835, the record is as follows: “The new Board of County Commissioners and Special Commissioners appeared, and were qualified by James Richardson and Jairus Ware, appointed to qualify civil officers in said county.” Hon. Samuel P. Loud, of Dorchester, Chairman; Seth Mann, Randolph; Joseph Hawes, Walpole. Special Commissioners, Benjamin P. Williams, Roxbury; John C. Scammell, Bellingham.

March 17, 1841 (Chap. 107), an act was passed which provided that in case of failure on the second trial to elect Commissioners, the Governor should fill vacancies from among the candidates receiving the highest number of votes.

June 22, 1841. Nathan Jones, of Medway, took the place of John C. Scammell, of Bellingham, as Special Commissioner.

May 28, 1844. James C. Doane, of Cohasset, took the place of Seth Mann, of Randolph, as Commissioner; and Martin Torrey, of Foxborough, the place of Nathan Jones, of Medway, as Special Commissioner.

1845. Nathan Jones, of Medway, took the place of B. P. Williams, of Roxbury, as Special Commissioner.

1847. Nathan Jones, of Medway, took the place of Joseph Hawes, of Walpole, as Commissioner; and Abraham F. Howe, of Roxbury, and Timothy P. Whitney, of Wrentham, became Special Commissioners, in place of Martin Torrey, of Foxborough, and Nathan Jones, of Medway.

April 4, 1853, there was an election for County Commissioners, at which but one candidate was elected, viz., Nathan Jones, of Medway, by a majority of six votes. At the second trial, held May 2, James C. Doane, of Cohasset, was re-elected by a small majority; and Abraham F. Howe, of Roxbury, and John A. Gould, of Walpole, were elected Special Commissioners. For the third Commissioner there was no choice, Asaph Churchill, of Dorchester, the candidate of the Free Soil and Democratic parties, having a plurality of seven votes over Nathaniel F. Safford, of Dorchester, who had been nominated by the Whig party in place of Hon. Samuel P. Loud, of Dorchester, who declined a renomination. There having been no election at the two trials, Governor Clifford appointed Mr. Safford to fill the vacancy, and at the first meeting of the new board, Mr. Safford was chosen Chairman.

March 11, 1854 (Chap. 77), an act was passed providing for classification of County Commissioners into three classes: the first to hold office until the next election for Governor; the second until the State election in 1855; and the third until the election in 1856; providing further, for the election, at each State election, of one County Commissioner, who should hold office for three years only; and providing further, that the Special Commissioners then in office should hold their offices until the annual election of Governor in 1856, and each third year thereafter, when two Special Commissioners should be chosen, a plurality of votes to elect.

At the annual election, November 11, 1854, Bradford S. Farrington, of Roxbury, was elected a Commissioner in place of Nathan Jones, of Medway, whose term had expired.

1855. Mr. Safford was re-elected Commissioner.

1876. Galen Orr, of Needham, was re-elected Commissioner.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

The following brief sketches of the several Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and of General Sessions, and of the members of the Board of County Commissioners, have been carefully prepared from the best available sources of information. Those who afterwards occupied other county offices will be found mentioned in their appropriate places.

• JUDGES OF THE COUNTY COURTS.

SAMUEL NILES, son of the distinguished clergyman of the same name, was a native of Braintree, and for many years one of the most prominent men of that town. He was Representative and Executive Councillor, and filled many other important offices. In 1793 he was appointed Justice of the new Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County.

RICHARD CRANCH was born in Kingsbridge, near Exeter, in Devonshire, England, in November, 1726. At the age of twenty, in 1746, he came to this country with General Joseph Palmer, who had married his sister Mary. Being of a literary turn of mind, he became a man of considerable learning, received an honorary degree of A.M. from Harvard College, and was elected a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He studied law, and was admitted to the bar, and was appointed one of the first judges of the Court of Common Pleas, after the organization of the County of Norfolk in 1793. He married Mary, the eldest daughter of the Rev. William Smith, of Weymouth, John Adams marrying Abigail, the second daughter. Mr. Cranch died on the 16th, and his wife on the 17th of October, 1811, and both were buried on the same day, the 19th, when Rev. Peter Whitney preached a sermon, which was afterwards printed. They left three children, Judge William Cranch, late Chief Justice of the United States District Court at Washington, D. C.; Elizabeth, who married Rev. Jacob Norton, of Weymouth; and Lucy, who married Mr. John Greenleaf of Quincy.

JOHN READ was born in Sudbury in 1728. When two years old he was carried to Roxbury, where he lived till he became of age, and learned the trade of a tanner. He afterwards became an agent for Gov. Bowdoin, who owned extensive estates near Cape Cod, among which was Naushon Island and its dependencies, known as the Elizabeth Islands. He afterwards returned to Roxbury, and was much in public life, being for some time land agent for Massachusetts, at that time an office of much importance. The town of Readfield, in Maine, was named in his honor, and he named the town of Bowdoinham in honor of Gov. Bowdoin, he being proprietor of both townships. His residence in Roxbury was in the Gov. Shirley house, which was afterwards owned by Gov. Eustis. He was known as Major Read, from his having acted as paymaster of militia before the Revolution. His brother James was the first brigadier-general appointed by the Provincial Congress. He was Representative to the General Court in 1794, and a Senator from Norfolk County in 1796, '97, '98 and '99, and a member of the Executive Council in 1801. He was also one of the first Justices of the Court of Common Pleas after the incorporation of the County of Norfolk, in 1793. He died June 3, 1813, aged 85 years.

EBENEZER WARREN was born in Roxbury, in the year 1749, and continued there until after the Revolutionary War began. When the British troops marched from Boston, he left home and joined in the battle of Lexington, on the 19th of April, and was one of three brothers who were in arms on that day; the others being Gen. Joseph Warren, afterwards killed at Bunker Hill, and the late Dr. John Warren of Boston. He afterwards removed to Foxborough, and was a member of the State Convention which adopted the Federal Constitution. In the year 1793 he was appointed Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and filled the office until the abolition of the Court in 1811. June 11, 1814, he was appointed Session Justice of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas. June 16, 1819, he was appointed Associate Justice of the new Court of Sessions. He died in Foxborough, January 9, 1824, aged 75 years.

JAMES ENDICOTT was born in Canton (then Stoughton), in 1739, and was for many years a prominent citizen of the town. He was captain of one of the seven companies of minutemen who marched to Cambridge on the 19th of April, 1775, and on the 4th of March, 1776, marched with his company of forty-one men "to the assistance of the Continental troops, when they fortified on the heights of Dorchester." A little later in the same year, with eighty-two men, he marched to Ticonderoga, and on the 28th of March, 1778, to Roxbury, "agreeable to an Order of Council," with seventy-eight men. He was Selectman of the town for several years, and Representative to the General Court in 1784, '85, '86, and '90. In 1793 he was appointed one of the justices of the new Court of Common Pleas, which office he held till his death, April 4th, 1799, in the 61st year of his age.

OLIVER EVERETT, born in Dedham, June 11, 1752, was graduated at Harvard College in 1779; taught school in Dorchester in 1776; was ordained pastor of the New South Church in Boston, January 2, 1782. After a ministry of ten years he was dismissed on account of ill-health. In 1799 he was appointed Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County, which office he held until his death in Dorchester, December 19, 1802, at the age of 52 years and 6 months. Edward and Alexander H. Everett were his sons.

MOSES EVERETT, brother of the preceding, born in Dedham, July 15, 1750, was graduated at Harvard College in 1771, and was settled over the church in Dorchester, September 28, 1774. After preaching for eighteen years he was compelled by ill health to resign his charge, and in 1793 he obtained a dismission, but continued to reside in the town. He was chosen Representative to the General Court in 1794 and 1795. In 1803 he was appointed Justice of the Court of Common Pleas of Norfolk County to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his brother Oliver. He died March 25, 1813, aged 63 years.

SAMUEL BASS was born in Randolph (then Braintree), May 15, 1757, and was for many years active in town affairs. He was Town Clerk and Selectman for many years, and also Representative to the General Court. In 1803 he was appointed Special Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County, and in 1814 Session Justice of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas.

DAVID STODDARD GREENOUGH was born at Jamaica Plain, Roxbury, March 28, 1787, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1805. Studied law, but afterwards became a merchant, and was at one time Special Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County. He died August 6, 1830, aged 43 years.

He removed to Quincy early in the present century, and devoted most of his time to the service of the town and the State. He was for more than twenty-five years Moderator of the town meetings, and was Representative to the General Court from 1808 to 1820, inclusive. He was a member of the Executive Council in 1820, '21, '22. In 1806 he was appointed a Special Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Norfolk. He died January 5, 1854, aged 86 years and 7 months.

EBENEZER SEAYER, born in Roxbury, July 5, 1763, was graduated at Harvard College in 1784, and chose the calling of a farmer. He was a member of Congress for the Norfolk District from 1803 to 1813, and a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1820. For many years he was Moderator of the town meetings in Roxbury, longtime a Selectman and Chairman of the Board, and from 1794 to 1802 a Representative to the General Court. In 1832 the town of Roxbury passed him a vote of thanks "for his long, faithful and unremitted services for nearly forty years past." July 7, 1807, he was appointed Chief Justice of the new Court of General Sessions of the Peace of Norfolk County, which office he held until 1809, when the duties of the Court were transferred to the Court of Common Pleas. On the re-establishment of the Court of Sessions in 1811, he was reappointed Chief Justice, which position he occupied until 1814, when the duties of that Court were transferred to the Circuit Court of Common Pleas. He died March 1, 1844, aged 80 years, 7 months, 26 days.

WILLIAM ASPINWALL, born in Brookline, in 1743, was graduated at Harvard College in 1760, and studied medicine with Dr. Gale, a distinguished physician in Connecticut, and after attending medical lectures at Philadelphia, returned home, where he commenced business at the age of twenty-six. He soon acquired a large practice, and during the Revolutionary War was a leading surgeon in the army. He was for many years one of the foremost men of the town. He was Representative to the General Court in 1794, '95, '96, '97, '98, '99, and was a Senator from Norfolk County in 1800, '01 and '02. He was also a member of the Executive Council in 1810. He was for several years Trial Justice and Commissioner of Insolvency, and was a Special Commissioner for the County of Norfolk from 1836 to 1859. In 1864 he was appointed Special Agent of the United States Treasury, and Acting Collector of Customs for the district of Nassau, Florida, which office he held until he resigned in 1866. On the passage of the U. S. Bankrupt Law, in 1867, he was appointed Register of Bankruptcy for the second district of Massachusetts, a position which he still holds.

GEORGE W. GAY was born in Roxbury, April 30, 1817, but has for many years been a resident of Sharon, which was the native place of his parents. He has been Selectman, Assessor, Overseer of the Poor, and was Representative to the General Court in 1856. He was Special Commissioner for nine years, from 1856 to 1865.

LUCAS POND was born in Wrentham, October 3, 1797. His calling in life was that of a farmer, in which he achieved decided success. He was much in public life, filling nearly every office in his native town; being a Representative to the General Court in 1831, and Senator from Norfolk County in 1840. Eight days after he was eighteen years of age he was commissioned as corporal of an independent company of militia, and became captain in 1825. He was promoted in 1828 to be lieutenant-colonel, in 1830, colonel, and in 1831, brigadier-general. At his own request he was discharged from service in 1833. He was County Commissioner from 1857 to 1863. During his whole life he has resided in that portion of Wrentham called Pondville, and which is now included in the town of Norfolk.

CHARLES ENDICOTT was born in Canton, October 28, 1822. He was for several years Town Clerk, Selectman, and held many other town offices. He was Deputy Sheriff for the county from 1846 to 1853, and Commissioner of Insolvency from 1855 to 1857. He was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced the practice of law in his native town. He was Representative to the General Court in 1851, '57 and '58, Senator from Norfolk County in 1866 and '67, and a member of the Executive Council in 1868 and '69. He was County Commissioner for six years, from 1859 to 1865. He was State Auditor for six years, from 1870 to 1875, inclusive, and in the fall of the latter year was chosen State Treasurer, which office he now holds.

ASA B. WALES, of Weymouth, was born in Lyme, N. H., Feb. 22, 1801, and was the son of Atherton Wales, a native of Randolph. He worked on his father's farm until he was 20 years old, when, after passing two years at school, he went to Boston, where, for the five following years, he was clerk in hotels in Boston and Charlestown. In April, 1830, he removed to Weymouth, and bought the hotel at the "Landing," which he kept for forty-two years. In April, 1843, he voluntarily abandoned the sale of intoxicating liquors. In 1872 he sold his hotel property and removed to North Andover, where he now resides. Mr. Wales was Special Commissioner of Norfolk County from 1859 to 1865.

MILTON M. FISHER was born in Franklin, January 30, 1811, and in 1832 entered Amherst College, but was compelled by ill-health to leave in 1833. After teaching school for several years, in 1835 he began business as a trader, in Franklin, and in 1836 removed to Westborough, where he served for several years on the School Committee, and was also Postmaster. In 1840, after a brief residence in Upton, he removed to Medway, where he engaged in the manufacturing of straw goods, in which he continued until 1863. He was for several years one of the Selectmen of the town, of which board he was chairman, and was Senator from Norfolk County in 1859 and 1860. He is President of the Medway Savings Bank and the Dean Library Association, and Manager of the Medway Insurance Agency.

DAVID H. BATES was born in Weymouth, June 3, 1815. When three years old he removed to Braintree, where he has since resided. During the early part of his life he was a bootmaker, but for the past twenty years has been most of the time occupied with public business. He was Selectman from 1854 to 1867, and from 1868 to 1871, and re-chosen in 1876-77. He was County Commissioner from 1865 to 1874, a period of nine years.

OTIS CARY was born in Bridgewater, June 14, 1804, and removed to Foxborough in 1834, where he has since lived, and for the greater portion of the time carried on business as an iron-founder. He has for many years been prominent in town affairs, serving as Selectman for ten years, and also in other offices. He was Representative to the General Court in 1860 and '61, and a Senator from Norfolk County in 1863 and '64. He was Special Commissioner from 1865 to 1868; has been President of the Foxborough Savings Bank since its organization in 1855, and has occupied many other positions of trust and honor.

AMOS H. HOLBROOK was born in Bellingham, November 23, 1818, and now lives on the same land which has belonged to the family for six generations. His life has been passed in farming pursuits, and in the performance of town and county business. He was Town Clerk ten years, Selectman ten years, Assessor seventeen years, and was a Special Commissioner of Norfolk County from 1865 to 1871.

JOSEPH MCKEAN CHURCHILL was born in Milton, April 29, 1821. He was graduated at Harvard College in 1840, and at the Harvard Law School in 1845, and soon after commenced the practice of law in Boston. He was Representative to the General Court from Milton in 1858, and a member of the Executive Council in 1859 and 1860. He was also a delegate to the Constitutional Convention in 1853, and for twelve years was an Overseer of Harvard College. During the war he was captain in the Cadet Regiment of Mass. Volunteers. He was County Commissioner from January 1, 1868, until April, 1871 (being Chairman of the Board for the last two years), when he was appointed Judge of the Municipal Court of Boston, which office he now holds.

GALEN ORR was born in Shirley, December 9, 1815, but removed to Needham in early childhood. He learned the blacksmith's trade, and subsequently carried on business as a nailer and machinist. For many years he has been successfully engaged in the manufacture of blind-hinges and fasts. He was a member of the Board of Selectmen, and Overseer of the Poor in Needham, for the years 1855, '58, '59, '60, '61, '62, '63, '64, '65 and '72, during a portion of the time being Chairman. He represented the district of Dover, Modfield and Needham in the Legislature of 1864. He was a Special Commissioner from Jan. 1, 1869, to 1872, and County Commissioner from 1872 to the present time, and has just entered upon another term of three years.

JOHN Q. A. FIELD was born in Quincy, January 3, 1835, and has followed the business of farming and stone contracting. Has filled the offices of Selectman, Assessor for three years, and Surveyor of Highways five years. He was a teacher until 1832, when he entered the office of Hon. D. W. Gooch as a student at law, and was admitted to the Suffolk bar in 1835. He held the office of Selectman of Weymouth for twenty years, and during a large part of the time was the Chairman of the Board. He was Representative to the General Court in 1852 and 1869, and was a Senator from the Norfolk and Plymouth District in 1872. In 1874 he was elected County Commissioner for Norfolk County, which position he now holds.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

JUDGES OF PROBATE.

WILLIAM HEATH was born in Roxbury, March 2, 1737, on the estate settled by his ancestor in 1636, and was bred a farmer. His fondness for military exercises led him, in 1754, to join the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, which he commanded in 1770, having previously been made a captain in the Suffolk regiment, of which he became colonel in 1774. In 1770 he wrote sundry essays in a Boston newspaper, signed "A Military Countryman," on the importance of military discipline and skill in the use of arms. He was a member of the General Court in 1761, and in 1771-74; engaged with zeal in the Revolutionary contest; was a delegate to the Provincial Congresses of 1774-75; and was a member of the Committees of Correspondence and of Safety. Appointed a Mass. brigadier-general Dec. 8, 1774; major-general, June 20, 1775; brigadier-general (Continental Army), June 22, 1775; major-general, Aug. 9, 1776. He rendered great service in the pursuit of the British troops from Concord, April 19, 1775, and in organizing the rude and undisciplined army around Boston; and with his brigade was stationed at Roxbury during the siege of Boston. After its evacuation, he accompanied the army to New York; opposed the evacuation of that city, and near the close of the year 1776 was ordered to take command of the posts in the Highlands.

In 1777 he was intrusted with the command of the eastern department, and had charge of the Saratoga (convention) prisoners. In June, 1779, he was ordered to the command on the Hudson, where he was stationed till the close of the war. Returning to his farm, he became a delegate to the convention that adopted the Federal Constitution in 1788; State Senator in 1791-92; and in 1806 was chosen Lieut.-Governor of Massachusetts, but declined the office. July 2, 1793, he was appointed Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for the new County of Norfolk, and the same day was appointed First Judge of Probate for the County. He died January 24, 1814, aged 77 years.

EDWARD HUTCHINSON ROBBINS was born in Milton, February 19, 1758, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1775. He studied law with Oakes Angier, of Bridgewater, and commenced practice in his native town. He was chosen a Representative from Milton in 1781, and Speaker of the House of Representatives in 1793, which office he held for nine successive years. In 1802 he was chosen Lieut.-Governor, and held the office until 1807. In 1793 he was appointed Special Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County, and in 1799 was appointed Chief Justice of the same Court. In 1808 and 1809 he was a member of the Executive Council. He also held many other positions of trust and responsibility. On the decease of Gen. Heath, in 1814, he was appointed Judge of Probate for the County of Norfolk, which office he held until his death, which occurred December 29, 1829.*

SHERMAN LELAND was born in Grafton, March 29, 1783, and remained on his father's farm until he was more than 20 years of age. During the two or three years following he attended school most of the time, and in October, 1805, commenced the study of the law, employing the winter months of that and the three succeeding years in teaching. He was admitted to the Bar at Worcester in December, 1809, and commenced practice at Eastport, Me., January, 1810. October 11, 1811, he was appointed Prosecuting Attorney for the County of Washington. He represented Eastport in the Massachusetts Legislature of 1812, and in December of that year was appointed first lieutenant, and served under that appointment in the army of the United States upon the eastern frontier until April, 1813, when he received the appointment of captain in the 34th Regiment of Infantry in the U. S. Army and served until June 5, 1814, when he resigned his commission and resumed the practice of his profession. In July he removed to Roxbury, Mass., and in the year 1815 opened an office in Boston, and commenced practice in both the counties of Suffolk and Norfolk. He was a Representative from Roxbury in the Massachusetts Legislature for the years 1818, '19, '20 and '21. He was also a delegate from Roxbury in the Constitutional Convention of 1820. He was a member of the Senate of Massachusetts from the County of Norfolk for the years 1823 and 1824, and, during the temporary absence of the President, was elected President pro tem. He was again a member of the House of Representatives in the year 1825, and was Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary. In 1824 he was a candidate for Representative in Congress for the Norfolk District, but, after several trials, his competitor, Hon. John Bailey, was elected by a small majority. He was again elected a member of the Senate from Norfolk County for the years 1828 and 1829, and was President of the Senate for the year 1828, and Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary for 1829. On the 26th of January, 1830, he was appointed Judge of Probate for the County of Norfolk, in place of Judge Robbins, deceased, and immediately entered upon the discharge of the duties of the office, which he continued to perform until his death, which occurred November 19, 1853, at the age of 70 years.

* Judge Robbins was a man of fine personal presence, of genial manners and great kindness of heart. He was emphatically the friend of the widow and orphan, and his death was regarded as a great public loss. He lived and died on the fine estate on Brush Hill, now the residence of his son, Hon. James Murray Robbins.

WILLIAM SHERMAN LELAND was born in Roxbury, October 12, 1824. After leaving the public schools in his native town, he entered the law office of his father, Hon. Sherman Leland, then Judge of Probate of the County of Norfolk. On the death of his father in November, 1853, he was appointed to fill the vacancy, which position he continued to occupy until 1858, when, under the administration of Governor Banks, the law concerning Courts of Probate and Insolvency was changed, and he failed to receive the appointment as Judge of the new court. He resumed the general practice of law, and soon acquired a large and lucrative practice. He was for many years one of the Directors of the People's Bank of Roxbury, and was at one time its active President. He was one of the projectors of the Elliot Five Cent Savings Bank, and was chosen its President, which office he continued to hold until his death, which took place July 26, 1869, at the age of 44 years.

GEORGE WHITE was born in Quincy. Fitted for college with William M. Cornell, LL.D., and at Exeter Academy, N. H. Was graduated from Yale College in 1848, and from Harvard Law School in 1850. Studied law with Hon. Robert Rantoul, Jr., Boston. Admitted to the Suffolk bar, and became partner with Mr. Rantoul in 1851. Member of Constitutional Convention from Quincy in 1853. Appointed Judge of Probate and Insolvency in 1858, which office he still holds.

JUDGE OF INSOLVENCY.

In 1856 the Legislature passed an act (chap. 284) establishing a Court of Insolvency, of which Francis Hilliard, of Roxbury, was, July 24th, appointed the Judge for Norfolk County. This Court lasted until 1858, when an act (chap. 93) was passed which abolished the Court, and established the present Court of Probate and Insolvency.

FRANCIS HILLIARD was born in Cambridge, November 1, 1806, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1823. He was admitted to the bar in Middlesex County, and soon after removed to Roxbury, where he continued for many years in the practice of law. He was Representative in 1848, Judge of the Roxbury Police Court, and Commissioner and Judge of Insolvency for Norfolk County. He afterwards removed to Worcester, where he still resides.

REGISTERS OF PROBATE.

SAMUEL HAVEN, first Register of Probate for the County of Norfolk, was born in Dedham, April 5, 1771. He was graduated at Harvard College in 1789, and studied law with Hon. Fisher Ames, in Dedham, and with his cousin, Hon. Samuel Dexter, of Boston. On the formation of Norfolk County, in 1793, he was appointed Register of Probate. In 1802 he was commissioned as a Justice of the Court of Common Pleas; and in 1804 was appointed Chief Justice. When Elbridge Gerry came into office as Democratic Governor in 1810-11, the old Court of Common Pleas was abolished, and a new tribunal called Circuit Courts of Common Pleas was established with Democratic judges. Mr. Haven continued in the office of Register of Deeds until 1833, a period of forty years, but retired almost wholly from legal practice, when he resigned, and not long after removed to Roxbury, where he continued to reside with his daughter, the wife of Hon. Francis Hilliard, until his death, which occurred September 4, 1847, at the age of 76 years.*

JONATHAN HOLMES COBB was born in Sharon, July 8, 1799, and received his academic education at various schools. He fitted for college at Milton Academy, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1817. After leaving college he entered the law office of William Dunbar, Esq., of Canton, where he remained until October 9, 1818, when he sailed for Charleston, S. C., where he entered the office of Benjamin F. Dunkin, then a celebrated lawyer in that city. At the same time he opened a classical and English school; but on the appearance of the yellow fever in 1819 he returned to Massachusetts, and entered the office of Jabez Chickering, Esq., of Dedham, where he remained until admitted to the Bar in Sept., 1820, when, at the age of 21, he opened a law office in Dedham. Subsequently, for a year or two, he was editor of the "Village Register," and also had a law office in Boston. In 1831 he was actively instrumental in establishing the Dedham Institution for Savings, of which he was the first Secretary and Treasurer. About this time he engaged in the manufacture of silk, and published a work on the subject. In February, 1831, the Legislature of Massachusetts requested Gov. Lincoln to procure the compilation of a Manual on the Mulberry-tree and the Manufacture of Silk; and Mr. Cobb prepared the work, of which several editions were printed, and which was afterwards republished by Congress and distributed throughout the country. In 1837 he established a manufactory of sewing-silk, of which he was superintendent and principal proprietor, but which was burned down in 1845, involving the proprietor in great loss. On the retirement of Judge Haven in 1833, Mr. Cobb was appointed Register of Probate for Norfolk County, which position he now holds. He was for thirty consecutive years Town Clerk of Dedham, declining reelection in 1875. He has been deacon of the First Church for more than forty years, and for the same period of time an active magistrate of the county.

JONATHAN COBB, eldest son of Jonathan H. Cobb, was born in Dedham, March 2, 1829. In 1844 he entered a store in Boston as clerk, where he remained until January, 1849, when he went, overland, to California, by way of Mexico. Returned to Dedham in 1851, and soon after went into business in Nashville, Tenn., where he remained until March, 1859, when he returned home and entered the Probate office. He was appointed Assistant Register of Probate and Insolvency in January, 1862, which office he now holds.

CLERKS OF THE COURTS.

NATHANIEL AMES, first Clerk of the Courts of Norfolk County, was the son of Dr. Nathaniel Ames and brother of Fisher Ames. He was born in Dedham, October 9, 1741, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1761. He was a physician, and an active and violent partisan of the Jefferson school, and was a warm political opponent of his brother Fisher. On the organization of the county, in 1793, he was appointed one of the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas, and also as Clerk of the Court of Sessions. The records show that he acted as Clerk of both of those Courts. For two years following the organization of

* Judge Haven was the son of Rev. Jason Haven and Catherine Dexter Haven, daughter of Rev. Samuel Dexter and sister of Hon. Samuel Dexter, Sen., of Dedham. Rev. Jason Haven was the son of Deacon Moses Haven, of Framingham, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1754. He was settled over the First Church in Dedham, February 5, 1756, and married the daughter of his predecessor.

Judge Haven's tastes were rather for theology than law, and the chief occupations of practical interest to him were horticulture and architecture. His attention to the last had reference only to personal enjoyment; but he was well versed in the principles of the science and their application to practical purposes, and often made useful suggestions to friends and public bodies engaged in building. He was one of the earliest in New England to accept the doctrines of Swedenborg, whose numerous works constituted his favorite reading, and in regard to which he sometimes wrote anonymously for the press. Yet he did not, till he removed from Dedham, a few years before his death, connect himself with any other church than that of which his father and grandfather had been pastors.

Mr. Haven built the fine house, and set out the English elms, on the estate now owned by Mr. John R. Bullard.

the county, the records of the Supreme Judicial Court were kept in Boston by John Tucker, Clerk of the Courts of that County. The record of the Court of Common Pleas has the following entry:—

"At a Court of Common Pleas, 26th day of September, 1797, Nathaniel Ames having, since the last session of the Court of Common Pleas, been removed from the office of Clerk by the Honorable the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, and John Lathrop, Jr., Esq., by them appointed to said office in his stead, as well as to the office of Clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court, agreeably to the Act of March 11, 1797:"

Dr. Ames died July 21, 1822, aged 81 years.

JOHN LATHROP, JR., son of Rev. John Lathrop, D.D., was born in Boston in January, 1772, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1789. He studied law with Gov. Gore, and after opening an office in Boston, in 1797, removed to Dedham, where he was soon after appointed Clerk of the Courts of the County, which position he held but a short time, and soon after removed to Boston. In 1799 he embarked for India, where he remained for ten years engaged in commercial and literary pursuits. Returning to this country in 1809, he passed the remainder of his life in Washington and Georgetown as an instructor, lecturer and writer in the papers of the day. He died in Washington, January 30, 1820, aged 48 years.

HORATIO TOWNSEND was born in Medfield, March 29, 1763, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1783; studied law with Theophilus Parsons, at Newburyport, and settled in practice in his native town. In 1799 he was appointed Special Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and about the same time received the appointment of Clerk of the Courts of the County, which office he continued to hold until 1811, when he was removed by Gov. Gerry. He was reappointed the following year, and continued in office until his death, which occurred at Dedham, July 9, 1826, aged 63 years.*

JOHN SHIRLEY WILLIAMS was born in Roxbury, May 3, 1772, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1797. He was for many years a lawyer in Roxbury and Dedham. In 1811 he was appointed Clerk of the Courts by Gov. Gerry, but was removed the next year by Gov. Strong. He was at one time County Attorney for Norfolk County. He died at Ware, Mass., while on a journey for his health, in May, 1843, aged 71 years.

JAIRUS WARE was born in Wrentham, January 22, 1772, and was graduated at Brown University in 1797. He was for many years a leading lawyer in his native town. He was a Representative to the General Court from 1809 to 1816, inclusive, and also in 1818, '19 and '23. He was a member of the Executive Council in 1825 and '26. In 1811 he was appointed an Associate Justice of the Southern Circuit Court of Common Pleas, and in 1819 Chief Justice of the new Court of Sessions, and again in April, 1822. September 1, 1826, having been appointed Clerk of the Courts of Norfolk County, he resigned the office of Judge. He continued in office as Clerk until his death, which occurred at Dedham, January 18, 1836, at the age of 64 years.

ERRA WESTON SAMPSON was born in Duxbury, December 1, 1797, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1816. He commenced the practice of law in Braintree, where he remained about twelve years, and on the death of Judge Ware, in 1826, he was appointed Clerk of the Courts of the County, and removed to Dedham. He continued in office until a few days before his death, which took place January 15, 1867, at the age of 69 years.

ERASTUS WORTHINGTON was the son of Erastus Worthington (W. C. 1804), and was born in Dedham, November 25, 1828. He was graduated at Brown University in the class of 1850. After residing nearly a year in Wisconsin he entered the Dane Law School at Cambridge, where he received the degree of LL.B. He completed his professional studies in the office of Hon. Ezra Wilkinson, at Dedham, and was admitted to the Bar at the February Term of the Supreme Court in 1854 at Dedham. He began practice in Boston, and was for some time a partner of the late Hon. David A. Simmons of Roxbury. In 1856 he was elected Register of Insolventcy for Norfolk County, which office he held until July, 1858, when he resumed practice in Dedham. He was also Trial Justice from 1857 to 1867. He was elected Clerk of the Courts of Norfolk County in 1866, and entered upon its duties in January, 1867. He has been twice re-elected to this office, the last time in 1876 for a term of five years, and continues to reside in Dedham.

EDGAR H. KINGSBURY was born in Canandaigua, N. Y., June 22, 1817. He lived in Brockport, N. Y., from 1825 to 1845, removing the latter year to Dedham. In April, 1846,

*Mr. Townsend owned and occupied the house afterwards owned by Ezra W. Sampson, and now owned and occupied by Hon. Thos. L. Wakefield. Lieut. Geo. H. Derby, U.S.A., well known as "John Phenix," was his grandson, and was born in Dedham, April 2, 1823. He was a graduate of West Point, and a man of brilliant talents. He died in New York of softening of the brain, May 16, 1861, aged 38 years.

he entered the Registry of Deeds as a Clerk, and remained there until September, 1855, when he became clerk to Ezra W. Sampson, Clerk of the Courts of the County. At the February Term of the Supreme Judicial Court, in 1866, owing to the illness of Mr. Sampson, he was appointed by the Court as Clerk pro tem, in which position he remained until Mr. Worthington assumed the office, January 1, 1867. Mr. Kingsbury remained in the office as clerk to Mr. Worthington until the establishment of the office of Assistant Clerk; and June 25, 1867, he was appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court as Assistant Clerk of the Courts of Norfolk County, which position he still holds by successive reappointments.

SHERIFFS.

HON. EBENEZER THAYER, of Braintree, the first Sheriff of Norfolk County, was the son of Hon. Ebenezer Thayer, also of Braintree, and was born Aug. 21, 1746. His father was for many years a prominent citizen of the town, having served in the office of Representative eighteen years, and was chosen Representative to the General Court seventeen years successively, and in 1776 was a member of the Executive Council. His mother was Susanna, daughter of Rev. Samuel Niles of Braintree. Mr. Thayer served the town many years as Selectman, Town Clerk and Treasurer; was Representative to the General Court in 1796, 1800 and 1801, a member of the Senate in 1795, '96, '97, '98, '99, and a member of the Executive Council in 1793 and '94. He was also a brigadier-general in the militia. On the organization of the county, in 1793, he was appointed Sheriff, but owing to ill-health resigned early in the following year. He died May 30, 1809, aged 63 years.

ATHERTON THAYER, half-brother to the preceding, was born in Braintree, February 9, 1766. His mother was Rebecca Miller, of Milton, who was the second wife of Hon. Ebenezer Thayer, Senior. On the resignation of the office of Sheriff by his brother, in 1794, he was appointed to fill the vacancy, and continued in the office until his death, July 4, 1798, aged 32 years.*

BENJAMIN CLARKE CUTLER, of Roxbury, was born in Boston, September 15, 1756, and was for many years a merchant, removing afterwards to Jamaica Plain. He was appointed Sheriff July 31, 1798, and held the office until his death. He died very suddenly at his residence on Centre street, Jamaica Plain, April, 1810, aged 54 years.

ELIJAH CRANE was born in Milton, August 29, 1754, and was the son of Thomas Crane, for many years a prominent citizen of that part of Stoughton now Canton. He early removed to Canton, where his regular business was that of a farmer, in which he met with marked success, although much of his time was devoted to public life. He was a man of large and erect stature, well developed form and graceful carriage, and was noted for his splendid horsemanship. He early took a deep interest in military matters, rising, by successive appointments, to the rank of Brigadier-General of the Second Brigade, First Division, M.V.M., to which he was promoted August 1, 1803, and promoted and commissioned Major-General of the First Division, June 16, 1803, which position he continued to hold until his discharge, June 8, 1827, a period of service in the highest military office of the State without a parallel in Massachusetts. He also attained high rank as a Mason, being successively Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts in 1820, '21, Senior Grand Warden in 1822, and Grand Master in 1832. On the death of Sheriff Cutler, in 1810, he was appointed Sheriff, and continued in office until 1811, when he was removed for political reasons by Gov. Gerry. The following year he was reappointed, and continued in office by successive reappointments until his death, the longest term of service as Sheriff ever held in the county. He died February 21, 1834, aged 80 years.†

WILLIAM BREWER, of Roxbury, was for many years a prominent citizen of the town, having been Chairman of the Board of Selectmen for several years, and was Represent-

* Atherton Thayer, like his father and brother, was a man of commanding appearance and of fine martial figure. It is related that at the funeral of Gen. Hancock, who died October 8, 1793, his appearance at the head of his troop of light horse (of which he was major) made such an impression that Sarah, daughter of Rev. Joseph Jackson, of Brookline, fell in love with him, sought him out, and married him against the wishes of her parents. He lived and died in the house which was for many years the residence of the late Hon. B. V. French. His brother, Hon. Ebenezer Thayer, Esq., lived and died in the house near the meeting-house, now owned by his grandson, Mr. Ebenezer C. Thayer.

† Gen. Crane was very fond of military life, and his long continuance in the office of major-general gave serious offence to many of the junior officers, whose promotion was thereby deferred. It is related that at a military supper given in the county, a false rumor of the general's death was circulated, when the following toast was offered, and drank with great gusto: "The late Major-General Crane: may he be eternally rewarded in Heaven for his everlasting services on earth."

tative to the General Court from 1801 to 1811, inclusive, and again from 1814 to 1817, inclusive. In 1811 he was appointed Sheriff of Norfolk County by Governor Gerry, which position he held for one year. He died August 2, 1817, aged 59 years.

JOHN BAKER, 2d, was born in Dorchester, February 27, 1780. He learned the trade of a wheelwright in Roxbury, and soon removed to Dedham, where for some time he carried on the same business. He was a Coroner, and for several years a Deputy Sheriff of the county. On the death of Gen. Crane, in 1834, Mr. Baker was appointed Sheriff, and held the office until his death, which occurred January 1, 1843, at the age of 63 years.

JERAULD NEWLAND EZRA MANN was born in Medfield, June 26, 1796. He learned the trade of a carriage-painter, serving his time with the Messrs. Bird of Walpole. In 1823 he went to Easton, where he remained but a short time, removing the year following to Taunton, where he remained five years, at the end of which time he went to Wrentham, and thence to Dedham, where he took the place of his brother-in-law, Major T. P. Whitney, as Deputy Sheriff and Jailer. On the death of Sheriff Baker, Mr. Mann was, Feb. 8, 1843, appointed Sheriff for the term of five years, at the expiration of which he declined a reappointment, but continued to act as Deputy Sheriff and Jailer until July, 1855, when failing health compelled his resignation. He soon after removed to Vernon, Conn., the residence of his youngest daughter, where he died, April 15, 1857, aged 60 years and 10 months.

THOMAS ADAMS was born in Quincy, April 20, 1804. In early life he was engaged in business with his father as a butcher, and afterwards was proprietor of different stage lines, and an extensive dealer in horses. He then went to Roxbury, where he continued to reside until his death. He was Deputy Sheriff under Sheriff Mann, and in 1848 succeeded that officer as Sheriff of the County. He was removed from office for political reasons in 1852, but was reappointed the following year, and continued in office until January 1, 1857. After Roxbury became a city, he was for two or three years City Marshal. He died suddenly, of apoplexy, January 2, 1869, aged 65 years.

JOHN W. THOMAS was born in Weymouth, April 1, 1815. Learned the trade of a shoemaker, and afterwards went into business as a manufacturer. Was a Representative to the General Court in 1852, a delegate to the Constitutional Convention in 1853, and a Lieutenant-colonel in the militia. May 13, 1852, he was commissioned Sheriff of Norfolk County by Gov. Boutwell, but was removed the following year for political reasons. In 1856 he was elected Sheriff by the Republican and American parties, and assumed the position January 1, 1857. He soon after removed to Dedham, where he continues to reside. He was the first sheriff elected by the people in the county, and at each successive election was chosen by a large majority of the popular vote. He is now serving his seventh term, each of three years.

COUNTY TREASURERS.

ISAAC BULLARD, the first Treasurer of the County, was born in Dedham, July 10, 1744, and was a lineal descendant from William Bullard, one of the first settlers of the town. He was for many years in public life, having been Town Clerk for three years, Selectman five years and Representative to the General Court from 1794 to 1801, inclusive, and again in 1806 and 1807. He was chosen deacon of the First Church, May 28, 1780, which office he continued to hold until his death. On the organization of the county, in 1793, he was chosen County Treasurer, to which position he was annually elected until his decease, which occurred June 18, 1808, at the age of 64 years.

JOHN BULLARD, son of the preceding, was born in Dedham, January 9, 1773. He was also much in public life, having been twenty years a Selectman, and one year Town Clerk. On the death of his father, in 1808, he was chosen County Treasurer, which position he occupied by successive elections until his death, February 25, 1852, a period of forty-four years. He was 79 years of age.

GEORGE ELLIS was born in Medfield, September 2, 1793, and early removed to Dedham, where for several years he carried on business as a trader. He was captain of one of the Dedham militia companies; for several years a Deputy Sheriff of the County, and for fourteen years one of the Selectmen of the town. He was Secretary and Treasurer of the Dedham Institution for Savings from May, 1845, to June, 1853, when, owing to ill-health, he resigned. On the death of John Bullard, in 1852, he was appointed by the County Commissioners County Treasurer, and the two following years was elected by the people, failing of a re-election in 1855. He died June 24, 1855, aged 62 years and 10 months.

CHAUNCEY C. CHURCHILL was born in West Fairlee, Vermont, September 15, 1815. Received his early education in the district schools of his native town, and at Post Mills High School. Removed to Amesbury, Mass., in March, 1837, and thence to Dedham, April 6, 1842. In April, 1855, he was elected County Treasurer by the American party, and on the change of the law concerning the office, was re-elected in November of the same year for a term of three years, and has since held the office, by repeated re-elections, until the present time, and January 1, 1877, entered upon another term of three years.

REGISTERS OF DEEDS.

ELIPHALET POND, the first Register of Deeds for the County of Norfolk, was born in Dedham, April 11, 1745. / He was at one time colonel of a militia company, but during the latter portion of his life was known as Capt. Pond. He was Town Clerk for twenty-five years, and Selectman for sixteen years. On the organization of the county, in 1793, he was chosen Register of Deeds, and by successive elections held the office until his death, which occurred July 2, 1813, aged 68 years.*

JAMES FOORD was born in Milton, October 30, 1761. In early life he was a farmer, teaching school in the winter months. On the death of Mr. Pond, in 1813, through the influence of his friend and neighbor, Hon. Edward H. Robbins, afterwards Judge of Probate, he was elected Register, and the following year removed with his family to Dedham, where he continued in the office until his death, October 15, 1821. Aged 60 years.

ENOS FOORD, son of the preceding, was born in Milton, Oct. 21, 1796. In early life he was a teacher, and on the election of his father, as Register, assisted him in the work of the office, and on the death of Mr. Foord, Senior, in 1821, his son was chosen as his successor, and continued in office until his death, April 22, 1861, at the age of 64 years. For ten years, from 1834 to 1844, Mr. Foord was Secretary and Treasurer of the Dedham Institution for Savings.

JAMES, son of the preceding, was born in Dedham, in November, 1832, and on leaving school entered the office of his father, where he continued until his father's death, in 1861, when he was appointed Register by the County Commissioners, and chosen by the people at the ensuing November election. He declined re-election in 1873, and vacated the office January 1, 1874. He has for several years been a resident of California.

JOHN H. BURDAKIN was born in Cambridge, November 3, 1841. After writing for several years in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds he entered the Norfolk Registry office in January, 1863. On the declination of Mr. Foord, he was elected Register in 1873, assuming the office in January, 1874, and was re-elected for a further term of three years in 1876.

COUNCILLORS AND REPRESENTATIVES.

The following is a list of members of the Executive Council and House of Representatives in 1776, from those towns which afterwards constituted Norfolk County, with such brief sketch of the history of each as it was possible to obtain. Of course at this time the Senate was not in existence.

COUNCILLORS.

HON. JABEZ FISHER was born in Wrentham, November 19, 1717. He received only a common-school education, but from his early years was distinguished for that ready and strong common sense; that intuitive perception of the proper adaptation of means to any proposed ends; that discriminating acumen which at once and without any apparent effort

* He owned and lived on the estate on the Providence Turnpike about a mile south of the village and now known as the Asylum for Discharged Female Prisoners. His father, Col. Eliphalet Pond, was born in Dedham, May 17, 1704, and died January 19, 1795, aged 91 years. He represented the town in the General Court in 1761 and '63; was Town Clerk for twelve years, and Selectman for 16 years.

severs the sound and practicable from the specious and visionary, which detects sophistry and baffles cunning; that inflexible adherence to principle; that courteousness of manners and that salient and unflinching desire to be useful, — which, through the whole course of a protracted life, inspired the confidence, not only of his immediate neighborhood, but of the public, and raised him to those offices of power and trust, by the faithful and untiring discharge of which he became the pride — decus et tutamen — of his native town, and a benefactor of his country.

Mr. Fisher was a Representative from the town of Wrentham for several years, we believe, under the Provincial charter. He was certainly a member of that very full house of delegates that assembled at Salem on the 7th of October, 1774, and formed themselves into a provincial congress, and then adjourned to Concord and chose John Hancock President, and Benjamin Lincoln Secretary; of the second provincial congress, that first met at Cambridge, in February, 1775; and of the third, which convened on the last Wednesday of May, in the same year, and of which Dr. Joseph Warren was elected President. This last congress remained in session until July 19th, when the representatives assembled, who had been elected, agreeably to the advice of the continental congress and the provisions of the charter of William and Mary, to constitute a house of assembly. Of this house, also, Mr. Fisher was returned a member; and was one of the renowned twenty-eight who were then elected councillors, to act as a distinct branch of the legislature, and likewise to exercise the executive powers of the Government. Among the councillors elected at this time were all the delegates from Massachusetts to the continental congress, and who were then attending that body at Philadelphia, viz.: John Adams, Samuel Adams, Thomas Cushing, Robert Treat Paine and John Hancock. But on the adjournment of the congress at Philadelphia, in the first of August, these gentlemen returned to Massachusetts, and some, if not all of them, took their seats in the executive council. They returned to Philadelphia on the reassembling of the continental congress, on the 5th of September.

To be elected in such times for an office of so great responsibility, and to be associated with the members of the continental congress, with James Bowdoin, Benjamin Lincoln and other ardent patriots and wise men, forms in itself an enviable and lasting distinction. But the fidelity, zeal and ability with which Mr. Fisher discharged the duties of the office, during several successive years of darkness and peril that "tried men's souls," are the true measure of his merit, if not of his fame. No member of that honorable board was "in labors more abundant" than he. No one's judgment was more highly estimated, no one's firmness less distrusted. He was regarded as the special watchman of the country part of Suffolk (which, at that time, included the present County of Norfolk), and was always relied upon to arrange and bring into efficient action all the force, moral and physical, of that important section of the province. Much as was expected and demanded of him, he never disappointed any expectation which he had voluntarily excited, nor failed to effect any practicable purpose which he deliberately formed. No man better knew what was practicable, and no man deliberated more thoroughly.

When the Constitution of the United States was submitted to the several States for ratification and adoption, Mr. Fisher was the delegate returned from Franklin to the convention of this State, which assembled on this important subject in 1788. Though the delegates from the towns contiguous to that which he represented, opposed, and finally voted against the Constitution, he, in conformity with the will of his constituents — a will which he had greatly contributed to form — and the dictates of his own judgment, not only recorded his vote in favor of adopting that instrument, but by his efforts among a certain class of men in the convention, who went there with views utterly hostile to the proposed frame of government, but with patriotic hearts and minds fair and open, and to whom he had ready access, he is known to have been instrumental, by laboring in season and out of season, and by urging his sound, lucid, and enlarged views, in effecting a change in their ultimate opinion.

The time which Mr. Fisher was not called to devote to the public service, he employed in agricultural pursuits, which were the choice of his youth, and the amusement of his old age. He died on the 15th of October, 1806, aged 89 years.*

HON. BENJAMIN WHITE was born in Brookline, October 5, 1724, and was graduated at

*See article in "Boston Monthly Magazine" for June, 1826, contributed by the late Judge Theron Metcalf.

Dr. Emmons preached a sermon on the Sunday following the death of Mr. Fisher, in which he bore strong testimony to his eminent worth and ability.

Mr. Fisher was a member of the Council in 1766, '67, '68, '69, '70, '71, '72, '76, '77, '78 and '79; of the House of Representatives in 1773, '74, '75, '86, '98 and '99, and of the Senate in 1780, '81, '82, '83 and '84.

Harvard College in 1744. He was a farmer, but very conspicuous for many years in public affairs. He was Selectman for eighteen years, and Town Treasurer seven years. He was Representative for several years, and a member of the Council from 1770 to 1779, inclusive. He died May 8, 1790, aged 66 years.

HON. EBENEZER THAYER was born in Braintree, July 31, 1721. He was Selectman eighteen years, and was chosen Representative to the General Court seventeen years successively, and was a member of the Executive Council in 1776. He died February 7, 1794, in the 73d year of his age, after a confinement of sixteen years. He was the father of Hon. Ebenezer Thayer and Major Atherton Thayer, the first two Sheriffs of Norfolk County.

REPRESENTATIVES.

Bellingham.

STEPHEN METCALF was born in Bellingham, December, 1731. He was for many years a Selectman of the town; Representative in the General Court in 1776, '77, '78, '79, '81, '82, '83; Senator for Suffolk County in 1785, '86, '87, '88, '89, '90, '91, '92, '93, and was in the Executive Council in 1794, '95, and '96. He was appointed Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for Norfolk County, July 2, 1793. He died July 26, 1800, aged 68 years and 7 months.

Braintree.

HON. JOSEPH PALMER, Esq., was born in England, but came to this country in 1746 with Richard Cranch, his brother-in-law, and purchased a large tract of land in Braintree (now Quincy), which he called Germantown, and where he expended much money in improvements. He was a man of good education and fine manners, and was soon called to positions of trust and honor. He was Moderator of the famous meeting of delegates held at the house of Richard Woodward, in Dedham, September 6, 1774, and member of the First Provincial Congress, October 7th, of the same year. He occupied a prominent position on the committees of that body, and was the only delegate from Braintree to the two following Congresses. He was also an active member of the Committee of Safety. He and his son were engaged at Lexington, the father acting as brigadier-general. He was afterwards stationed during the war at Hull, and in Rhode Island. He did not long survive the Revolution.

JONATHAN BASS, Esq.

Brookline.

MR. JOHN GODDARD was born in Brookline, May 28, 1730. He was Selectman and Assessor for twelve years, and Representative in 1776, '85, '87, '88, '89 and '92. He died April 13, 1816, aged 86 years.

Cohasset.

MR. JONATHAN BEAL.

Dedham.

MR. ABNER ELLIS was a native of Dedham, and lived and died at West Dedham. He represented the town in 1771, '72, '73, '74, '75, '76, '77, '78, '80 and '81.*

JONATHAN METCALF, Esq., was Representative in 1776, '78 and '79, and was conspicuous in town affairs.

Dorchester.

COL. LEMUEL ROBINSON was born in Dorchester, March 4, 1736. He was prominent in town affairs, having been Selectman and Assessor, and was Representative for the town in 1774 and '76. He died suddenly, July 29, 1776, aged 40 years.†

MR. JAMES ROBINSON.

* His son, Col. Abner Ellis, was Representative five years, and his grandson, Merrill D. Ellis, three years.

† Col. Robinson kept a famous tavern in Dorchester, which was a great place of resort for the patriots of that day. In the diary of John Adams there is an account of a meeting of the "Union and Association of the Sons of Liberty in this Province." August 14, 1768, the Sons met at Liberty Tree, in Boston, "where they drank fourteen toasts," and then adjourned to Liberty Tree Tavern, known as Robinson's Tavern, in Dorchester, where they dined at 2 o'clock. From three hundred to three hundred and fifty sat down to tables spread in the field under a tent. There were "three large pigs barbecued," and other provision in abundance. Forty-five toasts were given on the occasion, the last of which was, "Strong halters, firm blocks, and sharp axes to all such as deserve either." At 5 o'clock, P. M., the Boston people started for home, led off by Mr. Hancock

Medfield.

MR. DANIEL PERRY, of Medfield, was born in Sherborn, November 24, 1724. Removed at an early age to Natick, where he remained until 1756, when he settled in Medfield. He was prominent in church and town affairs, and was for several years an Associate Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Norfolk. He was Representative in the General Court in 1776, '77, '78, '80, '84 and '85. He died July 6, 1804, aged 79 years and 7 months.

Medway.

ELIJAH CLARK, Esq., was born in Medway, September 9, 1727. He was for many years Town Clerk and Selectman, and was Representative in 1776, '77, '78 and '79. He died October 7, 1801, in the 75th year of his age.

Milton.

CAPT. EBENEZER TUCKER was born in Milton in 1723, and was for several years a Selectman of the town. He was Representative in 1776, '77 and '78. He died in 1797, aged 74 years.

MR. JOSEPH CLAPP was born in Milton, June 7, 1726. He was deacon of the church, and removed to Sterling, where he died January 30, 1799, aged 73 years.*

Needham.

COL. WILLIAM MACKINTOSH, of Needham, was born in Dedham, June 16, 1722. Married August 26, 1745. Ensign and first lieutenant in French war. Removed from Roxbury to Needham, May 23, 1764. In 1774 chosen first captain of one of the two militia companies in the town, and soon after was made lieutenant-colonel, and as such served at Lexington. On the 14th of February, 1776, by the Council of the State, he was appointed colonel of the first regiment of militia in Suffolk County, and served during the war with great credit. He was twelve years Selectman, and five years Representative. In 1779 he was a member of the convention which framed the Constitution; and in 1788 was a member of the convention appointed for the purpose of taking into consideration the National Constitution, and voted for its adoption. On the 19th of April, 1790, was appointed deacon in the church, which office he held until November 22, 1803, when, owing to infirmities, he resigned, and a unanimous vote of thanks was passed by the church. He died January 3, 1813, aged 90 years, 6 months, 18 days.†

Roxbury.

COL. AARON DAVIS.

MR. INCREASE SUMNER was born in Roxbury, November 27, 1746, and was graduated at Harvard College in 1767. Studied law with Samuel Quincy; was admitted to the bar in 1770, and commenced the practice of the law in his native town. He was a Representative in the General Court from Roxbury in 1776, '77, '78 and '79. He was a Senator from Suffolk County in 1780, '81, '82. He was a member of the State Constitutional Conventions in 1777 and 1779. In June, 1782, he was chosen a member of Congress, in place of Timothy Danielson, resigned, but never took his seat in that body, having in August of the same year been made an Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court. Judge Sumner was also a member of the Massachusetts Convention of 1789. In April, 1797, Samuel Adams having declined a re-election, Judge Sumner was elected Governor, receiving a large majority of votes. He was re-elected in 1798 and 1799, the last time by an almost unanimous vote, but was unable to enter upon the duties of the office. He was languishing on a bed of sickness at the time of the meeting of the General Court at the

in his chariot. Mr. Adams was present himself, and says, "To the honor of the Sons, I did not see one person intoxicated, or near it."

In 1775 Col. Robinson carted out some cannon from Boston which he kept concealed on his premises to prevent them falling into the hands of the British. The tavern of Colonel Robinson was afterwards owned and occupied by his grandson, the late John Mears, recently deceased, and was situated about half a mile south of the meeting-house of the late Dr. Codman. It was destroyed by fire a few years since.

* Mr. Clapp's daughter, Jerusha, married Andrew Putnam, of Sterling, and was the mother of Rev. Dr. George Putnam of Roxbury.

James Mackintosh, Representative from Needham, in 1876-77, is the great-grandson of Col. Mackintosh.

commencement of the political year; but the Legislature having some constitutional scruples about the right of the Lieut.-Governor to act as chief magistrate after the death of the Governor, without his acceptance of the office, this ceremony took place in the bed-chamber of the dying Governor. He died of angina pectoris, on the 7th of June, 1799, in the 53d year of his life, "mourned and lamented by the whole people."

Stoughtonham (now Sharon).

CAPT. EBENEZER TISDALE was a Representative in 1776, '77 and '78.

Stoughton.

COL. BENJAMIN GILL was for many years prominent in town affairs.

MR. THOMAS CRANE was for many years one of the most prominent citizens of the town, and lived in that portion now included in the limits of Canton. He was born January 6, 1727. He was Selectman for several years, and was Representative in 1776, '77, '78, '79 and '81. He afterwards removed to Milton, where he died, October 7, 1804, aged 78 years.*

Walpole.

JOSHUA CLAPP, Esq., was born in Walpole in 1707. He was for many years one of the most prominent men in the town, being a captain in the militia, Justice of the Peace, for many years a deacon of the church, and Representative in 1768, '70, '71, '72 and '76. In 1745 he marched his company to Boston to help defend it from the attack of the French fleet, then daily expected. He died May 6, 1802, aged 95 years.

Weymouth.

MR. SOLOMON LOVELL was born in Weymouth in 1733. In the Revolutionary War he was actively engaged in the service of his country and rose from captain to general. In 1779 he had command of the land force in the Penobscot expedition, which was fitted out to attack the British troops at Penobscot, now Castine, Maine. He was a man of marked character, and possessed the entire confidence of the people of his native town. He was Representative in 1771, '76, '77, '78, '79, '81 and '83. On the organization of Norfolk County, in 1793, he was appointed Special Justice of the new Court of Common Pleas for the county. He died September 9, 1801, aged 68 years.

MR. NATHANIEL BAILEY was born in Weymouth in 1731. He was a prominent citizen of the town. He was deacon in the church, Selectman, and Representative in 1772, '73, '74, '75, '76, '80, '82, '84, '88, '90, '92, '94 and '96. He died December 17, 1812, aged 82 years.

Wrentham.

MR. BENJAMIN GUILD was Representative in 1776, '77 and '78.

MR. JOSEPH HAWES.

DR. EBENEZER DAGGETT.

* Thomas Crane, Esq., was much relied upon by the General Court of Massachusetts during the Revolution, as appears by their resolves, in which they entrusted the charge of the State powder-mill, in Stoughton (now Canton), and on the spot where the Revere Copper Works are), and the manufacture of powder there, to his care and supervision. Mr. James Capen, of Stoughton, who died February 24, 1853, in the ninety-seventh year of his age, related not long before his death, that when the affairs of the Revolution wore a gloomy aspect, and the army was suffering for supplies, Thomas Crane, Esq., went around the town soliciting contributions for the relief of the army; and he well remembered that on producing his papers, Mr. Crane's tears fell on them like a shower, and that with great expression and emphasis he assured the bystanders that the child Liberty was about to be born, and that all that was needed was strength to enable it to be delivered. — Gen. Reg., July, 1853.

Mr. Crane, during the latter part of his life, owned and occupied the house in Milton now owned by John Oakes Shaw. He was the father of Sheriff and Major-General Crane.

COUNCILLORS, SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, 1876.

[These sketches, with slight alterations, are taken from the "Boston Journal" of January 5, 1876. From 1866 to 1876, Roxbury, Dorchester and West Roxbury were, for purposes of representation, considered as a part of Norfolk County.]

COUNCILLORS.

District No. 2, which includes the whole of Norfolk County. — HON. HARRISON TWEED, of Taunton, Republican, was born in South Reading, February 17, 1806, and was educated in that town. He is agent and treasurer of the Taunton Locomotive Manufacturing Company, and was a member of the House in 1852 and '58, and of the Senate in 1868 and '69. Mr. Tweed was re-elected to the Council for 1877.

SENATORS.

First Norfolk District. — HON. ALBERT PALMER, Republican, of Roxbury, firm of Prescott and Palmer, ice dealers, was born in Candia, N. H., in 1831; studied at Phillips Academy, and was a member of the class of 1858 at Dartmouth College. He was a very active and useful member of the House in 1872, '73 and '74, and was in the Senate in 1875 and '76.

Second Norfolk District. — HON. JOSEPH E. FISKE, Republican, of Needham, was born in that town, October 23, 1839, and has held several local offices. He has been engaged in real-estate transactions, and was a member of the House in 1874. He distinguished himself during the war, and was successively orderly sergeant, Co. C, 43d Mass. CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS, JULY 4TH.

[In nearly every town in the county the day was observed by processions, speeches, bonfires and illuminations, but those named below were municipal celebrations.]

BRAINTREE.

At the annual town meeting, in March, an appropriation was made and a Committee of Arrangements appointed, consisting of Elias Hayward, Elisha Thayer, N. E. Hollis, James T. Stevens, Josephus Shaw, S. A. Bates and A. T. Pratt, to arrange for a proper observance of the 4th of July by the town of Braintree.

The exercises of the day were as follows: Introductory Address, by Elias Hayward; Prayer, by Rev. T. A. Emerson; Address, by Asa French, Esq., President of the Day; Reading of the Declaration of Independence from the original records of the town, by Samuel A. Bates, Town Clerk; Oration, by Hon. Francis A. Hobart; Reading of Centennial Ode, by A. T. Pratt; Music, by Braintree Brass Band; Singing, by select choir under direction of M. A. Perkins. In the evening there were grand displays of fireworks and burning of tar-barrels at several prominent places in the town.

BROOKLINE.

The Committee of Arrangements having in charge the celebration of the 4th of July consisted of the following citizens: Edward I. Thomas, Chairman; Murray M. Wing, Secretary; Wm. I. Bowditch, Henry M. Whitney, Charles U. Cotting, Wm. H. Wilder, James M. Codman, Frank W. Lawrence, George P. Richardson, Moses Williams, Jr., William B. Sears, Alfred Kenrick, Jr., Benj. F. Baker, Philip Duffy, Michael Driscoll, Henry Mason, Francis Hunnewell, R. G. F. Candage, J. Emery Hoar, Wm. H. Lincoln, Charles H. Drew, Howard N. Brown, Warren Goddard, Jr., Charles H. Stearns, Alexander S. Arthur.

A national salute of thirty-eight guns was fired and the bells rang at sunrise, noon and sunset. At 6.30, A. M., two American elms were set out in front of the Town Hall with singing and a dance around the trees by the school-children. A procession consisting of Grand Army Post 143, the Fire Department and the several civic societies, with a military escort of the Boston Fusileers and the Brookline Cadets, marched at 8, A. M., through the principal streets of the town. At 11, A. M., there was a meeting of the citizens in the Town Hall, presided over by William I. Bowditch, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, the exercises of which were as follows: Music, by the Orchestra; Prayer, by Rev. Henry C. Mabie; Centennial Hymn, written by John G. Whittier, and sung by the children's chorus; Introductory Remarks, by the Chairman; Music; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Francis Lewis Wellman; Song, by Myron W. Whitney; Address, by Wendell Phillips; Keller's American Hymn, by children's chorus; Address, by Edward Atkinson; Music, by Orchestra; Star Spangled Banner, sung by M. W. Whitney; My Country, 'tis of Thee, sung by children's chorus; Address, by Charles H. Drew, followed by the Benediction. In the evening, displays of old-fashioned bonfires of tar-barrels were made on Corey and other hills.

CANTON.

The day was celebrated under the direction of a Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Messrs. Thomas E. Grover, Chairman; J. Mason Everett, Elijah A. Morse, Ezra S. Brewster, Samuel H. Capen, Arthur C. Kollock, David T. Hagan, W. Henry Bense and Frank L. Gates. The exercises, which took place in the meeting-house of the First Congregational Parish, were as follows: Organ Voluntary, by Miss Clara B. Lopes; Reading from the Scriptures, by Rev. John W. Savage; Prayer, by Rev. W. H. Savery; Paine's Centennial Hymn, by chorus; Introductory Address, by Thomas E. Grover; Chorus; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Miss J. Annie Bense; Keller's American Hymn, by chorus; Historical Address, by Hon. Charles Endicott; The Star Spangled Banner, by chorus; Addresses, by citizens; Singing of America, by chorus and audience, followed by Benediction, by Rev. Clifton Fletcher. In the evening, displays of fireworks were made at several points.

FRANKLIN.

A large meeting of the citizens was held, which was presided over by Hon. Joseph G. Ray. After prayer, by Rev. St. John Chambré, America was sung by the audience, followed by the Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Miss Mary A. Bryant. Waldo Daniels acted as Toastmaster, the first sentiment being "The Day we Celebrate," which was responded to by Rev. St. John Chambré. "The Spirit of the Hour" was responded to by Rev. Mr. Short; "Our Flag in 1776 and 1876," by Rev. W. M. Thayer; "Reminiscences of Franklin," by Stephen W. Richardson; "Our Fathers of the Past Century," by Rev. W. H. Daniels, of Illinois; "Our Public Schools," by Rev. S. W. Squire; "Then and Now," by James M. Stewart, of the Franklin "Register," "The Colleges of America," by A. Barclay Fletcher; and the closing sentiment, "The Church, Past and Present," by Rev. Geo. W. Ryan. After music by the band, an ample collation was served. The exercises of the day closed with a display of fireworks in the evening.

MEDWAY.

The day was celebrated by a meeting of the citizens in Shumway's Grove, at West Medway, at which Charles H. Deane, Esq., acted as President of the Day. A procession of citizens in carriages, preceded by a cavalcade and followed by those on foot, marched through the principal streets of West Medway to the grove, where the exercises were as follows: Prayer, by Rev. E. O. Jameson; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Hon. M. M. Fisher; Oration, by Rev. S. J. Axtell, Jr.; and Music by the West Medway Band. A fine collation was furnished by the citizens of West Medway. There was a display of fireworks in the evening.

HYDE PARK.

The day was celebrated with great enthusiasm, commencing with a procession in the morning, followed by a meeting of the citizens in the grove at the corner of Austin and West streets, which was presided over by Edwin R. Walker, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen. The exercises were in the following order: Singing by chorus; Prayer, by Rev. Perley B. Davis; Singing of Keller's American Hymn, by the chorus; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Mr. G. Fred. Gridley; Singing of The Star Spangled Banner, by Miss M. C. Pollard; Oration, by Hamilton A. Hill; closing with the singing of America, by the audience. At 4 o'clock, P. M., union religious services were held in the Orthodox Church, which were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Alderman, followed by remarks by Theodore D. Weld, Rev. P. B. Davis, and Rev. J. H. Gilbert, and closing with prayer by Rev. Mr. Gilbert. At 7 o'clock, P. M., an immense meeting was held in Everett square, for the purpose of dedicating the new pump presented to the town by the Women's Temperance Union of Hyde Park. Mr. Walker presided at the dedication; an address was made by Mr. Edward J. Humphrey, followed by a choice original poem by Mr. Charles F. Gerry. A flag, the gift of Mr. N. H. Tucker, was then presented by Miss Nettie B. Richardson, and accepted by Mr. Humphrey in a brief speech, after which the flag was run up to the mast-head amid the cheers of the assembled multitude. A regatta and an exhibition of athletic sports were among the other attractions, and at night a grand exhibition of fireworks closed the stirring observance of the day.

NORWOOD.

The celebration of the day was under the direction of a Committee of Arrangements consisting of Francis Tinker, Rev. George Hill, Geo. E. Draper, Francis O. Winslow and W. E. Locke. A procession was formed at 10 o'clock, which marched to Highland Grove, where the exercises took place in the following order: Address of welcome, by Rev. George Hill; Song of welcome, composed by Francis Tinker, and sung by the Alpine Quartette; Introductory Remarks by W. E. Locke, President of the Day; Prayer, by Rev. J. P. Bixby; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Francis O. Winslow; Music by the band, and Singing by the quartette, after which Curtis Guild, of Boston, gave a patriotic address suited to the occasion. Mr. Sanford Mitchell sang the "Sword of Bunker Hill," and the audience joined in singing an original ode, written for the occasion by Rev. Theron Brown, after which addresses were made by Edwin Thompson and others. In the afternoon a picnic was held in the grove under the auspices of the Norwood Reform Club, and in the evening there was an excellent display of fireworks.

QUINCY.

At the annual town meeting, a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Edward Whicher, Henry F. Barker, and James H. Slade, to make the necessary arrangements for a centennial celebration of the 4th of July. $600 was appropriated for the purpose, and $600 additional was raised by subscription. The day was celebrated by exercises in Yale's mammoth tent, erected on land of Mr. James Edwards, on Granite street. A procession was formed, under the direction of Edward Whicher, Chief Marshal, which marched to the tent, where James H. Slade presided. The exercises were as follows: Singing, under direction of Mr. John Farley; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by six young ladies; Opening Address on the early history of Quincy, by Charles Francis Adams, Jr.; History of the First Church, by Edwin W. Marsh; History of Christ Church, by Rev. R. H. Howe; History of the Universalist Church, by Rev. G. W. Whitney; History of the Evangelical Church and Society, by Rev. Edward Norton; History of the Baptist Church, by Rev. C. H. Rowe; Sketches of Quincy, Hancock and Adams, by Professor W. R. Dimmock; of the Public Schools of Quincy, by Col. Parker; and of Quincy during the late war, by Charles H. Porter. There was also a regatta, entertainments for the children during the day, and fireworks in the evening.

RANDOLPH.

The town, at its annual meeting, appropriated $300 to defray the expense of celebrating the 4th of July, and chose the following Committee of Arrangements: J. White Belcher, Jonathan Wales, John F. Kilton, Seth Turner and James A. Tower, with the Selectmen. Subsequently, the committee organized by the choice of J. White Belcher, Chairman, and Jonathan Wales, Secretary. The sum appropriated by the town not being deemed sufficient for the purpose, a Centennial Tea-Party realized a further sum of $300, which was given in aid of the celebration.

On the 4th of July a procession was formed, under the direction of Capt. Hiram C. Alden, Chief Marshal, which marched through the principal streets, the houses and public buildings being finely decorated. At two o'clock a meeting of the citizens was held at the Town Hall, presided over by John T. Flood, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, and an oration was delivered by Rev. John C. Labaree. A display of fireworks in the evening closed the celebration.

STOUGHTON.

In the morning a procession was formed, which marched to High-School Grove, where the exercises were as follows: Prayer, by Rev. J. Livsey; Music, by a select choir; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Francis Capen; Oration, by Halsey J. Boardman, of Boston. At twelve o'clock dinner was served, after which addresses were made by Rev. E. H. Capen, President of Tufts College, and a native of the town, A. M. Leonard, of Boston, and others. There was a fine display of fireworks in the evening.

SHARON.

A gathering of citizens was held at Massapoag-Lake Grove, at which William R. Mann acted as President of the Day. The Declaration of Independence was read by Rev. A. P. Chute; selections from the Scriptures were read by Rev. H. C. Weston; and prayer was offered by Rev. Lyman Partridge. George W. Gay gave the history of the churches, and William B. Wickes the early municipal history of the town. Music was furnished by the Citizens' Brass Band; and vocal music, under the direction of Sanford Waters Billings, was also given. In the evening a bonfire was kindled on Moose Hill, as in the olden time.

BURNING OF MEDFIELD.

The Bi-Centennial Anniversary of the Burning of the Town of Medfield, by the Indians, in 1676, was celebrated by the citizens of the town, February 21st, 1876, under the direction of a Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Rev. C. C. Sewall, Rev. J. M. R. Eaton, and Messrs. Jacob R. Cushman, Charles Hamant, and James Hewins. Bells were rung and salutes fired at morning, noon and evening. The literary exercises took place at the Town Hall, and consisted of an Opening Address by Rev. Charles C. Sewall, President of the Day; Prayer, by Rev. J. M. R. Eaton; Singing of St. Martin's by the audience; Historical Address by Robert R. Bishop, Esq., of Newton, a native of Medfield; and an appropriate poem by James Hewins, Esq. A recess was then taken for a collation in the vestry of the Unitarian Church. At 2, P. M., the exercises in the Town Hall were resumed by singing a hymn, written for the occasion by Rev. J. H. Allen, of Cambridge, followed by addresses from the President of the Day; Hon. J. B. D. Cogswell, of Yarmouth; Rev. Theron Brown, of Norwood; Henry D. Hyde, Esq., of Boston; Rev. Charles Hammond, of Monson; Mr. D. T. V. Huntoon, of Canton; Mr. Edward A. H. Allen, of Sherborn; Rev. S. W. Bush, of Boston, and others. The exercises closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Crane. The proceedings of the day, including the admirable address of Mr. Bishop, have been published in an elegant pamphlet.

WINSLOW PARK, NORWOOD.

Winslow Park, a new park laid out on the corner of Walpole and Chapel streets, Norwood, by George Winslow, and his sons, was dedicated on Monday, November 6th. Mr. Francis O. Winslow made the opening address, followed by a patriotic address by Rev. J. P. Bixby. Mr. George Winslow, seventy-six years old, run up a beautiful flag from the elegant staff which adorns the enclosure, amidst music by the band and the shouts of the assembled multitude. The houses in the vicinity were finely illuminated.

JOSEPH R. FRAZIER, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen for 1876, died Sept. 15, aged 65 years.

BROOKLINE.

GEORGE F. HOMER, Esq., Counsellor-at-Law, died of heart disease, April 14, aged 60 years, 9 months, 20 days. He was born in Boston, was graduated at the Latin School, and at Amherst College in 1834. He early went to Brookline, where he was a member of the School Committee, Trustee of the Public Library from 1857 to 1875, and Representative to the General Court in 1867.

DR. WALTER CHANNING, for many years an eminent physician in Boston, died July 27, aged 90 years, 3 months, 12 days.

COL. THOMAS ASPINWALL, a native of Brookline, died in Boston, August 11, aged 90 years, 2 months, 19 days. He was a son of the distinguished Dr. William Aspinwall, and was born May 23, 1786. He was graduated at Harvard College in 1804. In the war of 1812 he rendered conspicuous services, and in the memorable sortie from Fort Erie lost his left arm and was otherwise severely wounded. In 1816 he was appointed, by President Monroe, Consul at London, where he remained until displaced by President Pierce, in 1854, when he removed to Boston, where he continued to reside until his death.

DEACON DAVID COOLIDGE, died Nov. 30, aged 87 years, 8 months, 7 days. He was born in Watertown, and was a grandson of Joseph Coolidge, who was one of the patriots who fell at the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775. Dea. Coolidge was a resident of Brookline, at the same place on Harvard street, for more than 50 years, and was a deacon of the Allston Baptist Church. He leaves seven sons.

CANTON.

LYMAN KINSLEY, for many years a prominent citizen of Canton, died in Cambridge, March 15, aged 68 years. Mr. Kinsley was born in Canton, March 7th, 1808, and succeeded to the business of his father, Adam Kinsley, as a manufacturer of iron, in which he acquired great prominence. He represented the town in the Legislature of 1849. He was a generous and public-spirited man, and was highly esteemed.

HON. JOHN S. ELDRIDGE, for many years a well-known resident of Canton, died in New York, March 23, aged 56 years and 6 months. He was born in Yarmouth, Sept. 23d, 1819, and after finishing his course of studies passed through the Law School at Cambridge in 1842, and commenced the practice of law in Boston. He soon after became connected with the railroad interests of New England, to which he devoted the remainder of his life. He was for several years Trustee of the Vermont Central Railroad, and subsequently President of the Erie Railroad in New York, and the Hartford and Erie Railroad in Massachusetts. He removed to Canton about 1853, where he purchased a very large estate and became an extensive breeder of Jersey stock. He represented the town in the Legislature of 1859 and '60, and in 1865 was a Senator from Norfolk County. He was President of the Norfolk Agricultural Society in 1869, '70 and '71.

HORACE GUILD, a prominent farmer in Canton, died April 22, aged 73 years and five months. He was a native of South Dedham, but went to Canton in 1827 and became the owner of a large farm, of which he was a highly successful cultivator. He was for many years a member of the Board of Selectmen, Assessors, and Overseers of the Poor.

LIEUT. WILLIAM MCKENDRY, Jr., of Canton, died at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, August 9, aged 61 years. He was born in Canton, August 25th, 1823, and after receiving a school education enlisted as a sailor before the mast in an East Indiaman, and before many years became captain. In the war of the rebellion he enlisted in the naval service under Farragut, where he achieved distinction, and at its close was transferred to the revenue service. Exposure in the service brought on disease which assumed so serious a form that by the advice of his family physician he was carried to the hospital, where he seemed to be recovering, when, without warning, and whilst sitting in his chair, he suddenly expired.

HENRY FISHER, a native of Canton, died in that town, Sept. 11, aged 71 years and 5 months.

NATHANIEL WENTWORTH, a native of Canton, died in that town, Nov. 29, aged 81 years and 5 months.

MRS. CARRIE E., wife of Alfred Hewins, died of typhoid fever, October 21, aged 39 years, 3 months. "A spirit pure and bright, with something of an angel light."

MRS. MARY K., widow of the late Thomas Sherwin, and daughter of the late Col. Daniel L. Gibbens of Boston, died of paralysis, October 27, aged 63 years, 10 months, 6 days.

JOHN SKILLEN HOUGHTON, a native of Dedham, died at Philadelphia, of apoplexy, December 11, in the 60th year of his age. He learned the trade of a printer of Herman Mann, Sen., and before his majority edited and published the "Dedham Patriot and Canton Gazette," which had a large circulation. In 1839 and '40 he was the Washington correspondent of the Boston "Atlas." He was also one of the publishers and editors of the Boston "Daily Mail." He afterwards removed to Philadelphia, where he acquired a handsome property, and became the President of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, in the operations of which he took great interest.

DORCHESTER.

JOHN MEARS, for many years a prominent citizen of Dorchester, died April 29, aged 80 years, 7 months, 8 days. He was born in Roxbury, September 21, 1795, but when a few months old his parents removed to Dorchester, where he ever after lived. When 28 years of age he was chosen treasurer of the town, and continued in the office for seventeen successive years, and filled various offices of trust and responsibility for many years afterward. In 1831 he became a partner with the late David and Lorenzo Prouty in the manufacture of ploughs, and it was by that firm that the celebrated "centre-draft plough" was invented, which obtained the bronze medal at the World's Fair in London, the great gold medal from Nicholas I., Emperor of all the Russias, and the first prize from the Massachusetts State Agricultural Society at Worcester. This centre-draft principle has since been adopted by nearly every plough manufacturer in the country. Mr. Mears first successfully used and brought into operation in Boston cooking stoves using anthracite coal as fuel, and many of his cooking and parlor stoves are yet in use. He was highly esteemed for his business capacity and strict integrity.

REV. A. R. BAKER, D.D., died April 30th, aged 72 years. He was a native of Franklin, and was graduated at Amherst College in 1835. He studied theology at Andover, and was settled over Evangelical churches in Medford, Lynn, Needham and South Boston, but had resided in Dorchester several years. He was a man of decided literary culture, but of very conservative views on religious and political topics.

DOVER.

LUTHER RICHARDS, for many years a prominent citizen of Dover, died of cancer, at the Massachusetts General Hospital, in Boston, July 1, aged 63 years. He was born in Dover, April 27th, 1809. He was for many years Town Clerk and Selectman, and was a member of the Constitutional Convention in 1863. He was for many years Superintendent of the Unitarian Sunday School in Dover. During the last years of his life he resided in Boston, where he was engaged in the leather business. He was an honest, kind-hearted, public-spirited man.

ABNER L. SMITH, died of heart disease, August 15, aged 53 years, 6 months, 23 days. Mr. Smith was Town Clerk of Dover for 17 years, resigning April 18th on account of sickness. He was Chairman of the Board of Selectmen nine years, Assessor two years, member of the School Committee two years, Constable twenty years, and in 1869 represented the towns of Dover, Medfield and Needham in the General Court. He was a most useful and respected citizen.

WRENTHAM.

NANCY WARE HAWES, died August 23, aged 96 years, 8 months, 6 days. Mrs. Hawes was the daughter of Capt. Nathaniel Ware and sister of the late Hon. Jairus Ware, and was born in Wrentham, Dec. 22d, 1779. In 1807 she married George Hawes, who was for many years prominent both in town and county, serving as colonel in the war of 1812, as Representative to the General Court in 1828, and Senator from Norfolk County in 1834. She survived her husband nearly forty years. One who had known her long and well paid this fitting tribute to her character: "Even since the infirmities of age came on, the mind of this venerable woman retained its freshness and buoyancy of spirit. Her keen sense of humor, her quaint drollery, was full of sound, good sense and real wisdom, and her words have been stored in many hearts. Her memory, which scores of years did not seem to enfeeble, helped to make her mind one of unusual quality and power. In person she must have been beautiful in youth, and was ever of commanding presence." Her pastor, in years gone by, thus wrote of her: "She was one of the elect and grand persons of that grand old town; one of those few who constitute the charm and crown of our New England towns, whose loss we can ill-afford in these days. Let us consider what she has been and what she still is, a character so strong, so sincere, so royal, and yet so humble."

APPENDIX.

The following valuable statistical matter is taken from the admirable and exhaustive Census of the State of Massachusetts for 1875, prepared and arranged under the direction of Hon. Carroll D. Wright, Chief of the Bureau of Statistics for the State. A portion of the matter relating to the manufactures of the County was kindly furnished by him in advance of the publication of the volume of the Census devoted to manufactures, for which, and for other attentions, the compiler desires to return his acknowledgments.

NORFOLK COUNTY.

[Incorporated March 26, 1793. Loss of population since the Census of 1865, 27,985; owing to annexation to Boston of Dorchester, Roxbury and West Roxbury, with a population of 78,000. Otherwise Norfolk County would have shown a gain of 50,015.]

BELLINGHAM.—Nov. 27, 1719. From parts of Dedham, Wrentham and Mendon. Boundary between Bellingham, Franklin and Medway established Feb. 23, 1832.

BRAINTREE.—May 13, 1640. See Quincy and Randolph.

BROOKLINE.—Nov. 13, 1705. Part of Roxbury annexed to Brookline, Feb. 24, 1844. Part of Brookline annexed to Boston, May 8, 1874. Gain, 1,413 over 5,262; due to building enterprise.

CANTON.—Feb. 23, 1797. Northerly part of Stoughton. See Stoughton. Gain, 874; from manufactures.

COHASSET.—April 26, 1770. Second Precinct of Hingham.

DEDHAM.—Sept. 8, 1630. Boundary between Dedham and Dover defined March 7, 1791. Part of Dedham annexed to Dorchester, June 17, 1831. See Bellingham, Dover, Needham, Medfield, Walpole, Hyde Park and Norwood. Loss, 1,439; from loss of South Dedham, set off as town of Norwood, 1872, and territory set off to Hyde Park, 1868. Chief loss from South Dedham, now Norwood, the population of which is 1,749.

DOVER.—July 7, 1784. Part of Dedham incorporated as a district, July 7, 1784, and as a town, March 31, 1836. Boundary between Dover and Dedham defined March 7, 1791; between Dover and Walpole changed Feb. 27, 1872.

FOXBOROUGH.—June 10, 1778. From parts of Wrentham, Walpole, Stoughton and Stoughtonham (Sharon). Parts of Stoughton and Sharon annexed to Foxborough, March 12, 1796; part of Wrentham annexed Feb. 7, 1831; and part of Sharon, Feb. 28, 1850. See Sharon, Walpole and Wrentham.

FRANKLIN.—March 2, 1778. Westerly part of Wrentham. Part of Medway annexed to Franklin, June 27, 1792. Boundary between Franklin and Medway established Nov. 3, 1792, and Feb. 23, 1832. See Bellingham and Norfolk.

HOLBROOK.—Feb. 29, 1872. Part of Randolph. See Randolph.

HYDE PARK.—April 22, 1868. From parts of Dorchester, Dedham and Milton. Population, 6,316, which the towns named lose. Hyde Park has lost since 1873, by the burning of a large woolen mill, and the shutting down of a rolling mill and a machine shop.

MEDFIELD.—May 23, 1651. Dedham Village. See Medway.

MEDWAY.—Oct. 24, 1713. Part of Medfield. Boundary between Medway and Sherborn established March 3, 1792. See Bellingham, Franklin and Norfolk in this county, and Holliston in Middlesex. Gain, 1,023 over 3,219; due to establishment of several boot manufactories.

MILTON.—May 7, 1662. See Hyde Park. Small loss, from loss of territory to Hyde Park.

NEEDHAM.—Nov. 5, 1711. Part of Dedham. Boundary between Needham and Natick, changed June 22, 1797. See Newton. Gain, 1,755 over 2,793; from general development of the building and manufacturing interests of the town, and perhaps from the establishment of Wellesley College.

NORFOLK.—Feb. 23, 1870. From parts of Wrentham, Franklin, Medway and Walpole. Boundary between it and Wrentham changed in 1871. Population, 920, which the towns named lose.

NORWOOD.—Feb. 23, 1872. From that part of Dedham called South Dedham and small part of Walpole. Population, 1,749, taken chiefly from Dedham, which see.

QUINCY.—Feb. 23, 1792. North Precinct of Braintree. Parts of Dorchester annexed to Quincy, Feb. 12, 1819, and May 2, 1855, and a part of Braintree, April 24, 1856. Gain, 2,437 over 6,718; from building operations and the desirableness of Quincy as a residence.

RANDOLPH.—March 9, 1793. Part of Braintree. Portion of boundary defined June 22, 1811. Part set off into new town of Holbrook, which see. Loss, 1,670; from loss of territory as above.

SHARON.—June 20, 1765. Formerly Stoughtonham, Second Precinct of Stoughton. Part of Stoughton annexed to Sharon, Feb. 12, 1792; also, March 26, 1864. Boundary between Sharon and Foxborough established Jan. 30, 1833. Part of Sharon annexed to Walpole, May 1, 1874. See Foxborough and Walpole. Small loss, from loss of territory in 1874 as above.

STOUGHTON. — Dec. 22, 1728. Part of Dorchester. Part of Canton annexed to Stoughton, March 31, 1847. See Canton, Foxborough and Sharon.

WALPOLE. — Dec. 10, 1724. Part of Dedham. Parts of Sharon annexed to Walpole, Feb. 28, 1804, and June 21, 1811; part of Dedham, June 21, 1811; and parts of Foxborough, March 27, 1833, and March 28, 1834. Line between Dover and Walpole changed Feb. 27, 1872. See Foxborough, Norfolk and Norwood.

WEYMOUTH. — Sept. 2, 1835. Boundary between Weymouth and Abington established March 31, 1847.

WRENTHAM. — Oct. 15, 1873. Boundary between Wrentham and Foxborough established Feb. 3, 1819; between Wrentham and Norfolk changed in 1871. Part set off to Norfolk, Feb. 23, 1870. See Attleborough, Bellingham, Foxborough, Franklin and Norfolk. Loss, about 700; from loss of territory as above.
